Floods Hit Four States

Floods from rain-swollen rivers and streams drove hundreds from their homes in Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee and Ohio Tuesday as the midcontinent was plagued by storms and record cold.

The rains which caused flash flooding were triggered by the newest in a steady procession of late winter storms. The storm also heaped more snow on the central Rocky Mountains and plains.

Eastern Kentucky appeared hardest hit. National Guard troops moved into Corbin, Jackson and Renna to assist in evacuations. Gov. Bert Combs authorized use of guardsmen in other threatened communities.

KENTUCKY state police said portions of about 50 roads, some major highways, were inundated.

At Salyersville, a community of 1,173, flood water lapped into all but two buildings—a hotel and restaurant. More than 300 persons were driven from their home. Communications were knocked out.

Guardsmen, carrying cots and blankets for the homeless, were sent to Corbin, 120 miles southeast of Louisville, to help evacuation efforts.

ABOUT 30 families were taken out of low-lying areas by national guardsmen along the Kentucky River at Rad-

Keep Faith, Astronaut Tells U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. warned congressmen Tuesday that some future American space flights may fail, possibly with loss of life. But he urged them not to lose faith in the program.

Glenn, appearing with fellow spacemen Alan B. Shepard and Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom before the House Space Committee, said:

"We don't envision every flight coming back as successfully as the three so far."

"THERE WILL be failures. There will be sacrifices."

"I hope we will all continue to have the same confidence in the program that we have now, despite the fact there will be times when we are not riding such a crest of happiness and success as we are right now."

Glenn, the first American to orbit the earth, appeared as the committee began considering President Kennedy's recommendation that $3.7 billion be made available for America's space effort during the next fiscal year.

NEWPORT, Wales (AP)—The engagement of Miss Helen Paulin and Clifford Bevan was announced Tuesday, giving the Paulin sisters a clean romantic sweep of the Bevan brothers.

Sylvia Paulin married Brian Bevan in 1957. Her sister Rosalind married his brother Gareth in 1960. Said Mrs. C. R. Bevan, mother of the brothers: "I have one regret. The Paulins have another daughter, Christine, but I have run out of sons."

Increased Facilities for Fire Dept. Win

Long Beach voters gave booming approval Tuesday to tap the city's $1.7-billion offshore oil pool, voted a $1.5-million bond issue for added fire protection, approved seven other "non-cost" propositions but rejected three bond-issue items for a new city hall, new main library and a senior citizens' center.

Mansell and Wade Gratified

Mayor Edwin W. Wade and City Manager John R. Mansell praised the electorate's "750 batting average" for progress Tuesday night despite the loss of three bond issue propositions in the city special election.

"Proposition 1 (offshore oil drilling) and Proposition D (extending city leases to 60 years) are the greatest victories in the history of Long Beach," said Mayor Wade. "And you can't feel too badly when nine out of 12 are won."

"ON THE THREE losing measures, it was quite obvious the people are not prepared to spend tax dollars for public improvements. This makes Proposition 1 that much more important. With the oil revenue realized through its passage, I feel that two or three years hence—when upland oil development produces revenue which must be used for bond redemption—eventually there'll be money in the bank. Then we can try again on the bond issues."

Mansell saw the election results as "an important step forward for the city of Long Beach."

"Passage of Propositions 1, 6, 7 and A and B will provide for the orderly development of our shoreline and were extremely important to the future framework of this city."

"IT IS gratifying to have the voters adopt nine out of the 12 issues presented in this program for progress. I feel that passage of the bond issue for fire protection improvements, extended leasing provisions, as well as the streamlining of the charter, will greatly benefit our city."

"Naturally we are somewhat disappointed in losing three of the bond issues but two-thirds approval is most difficult to obtain. We are pleased to see at least a majority of voters favoring the city."

ONLY ON PROP. 5, the fire-protection proposal, did local voters see fit to assume a bonded debt—$1,535,000 to replace three substandard fire stations, to build two new ones, to improve the city's alarm system and to improve training facilities.

The seven remaining propositions breezed to easy victories. Propositions 6 and 7 represented an earmarking of $4,039,510 from tideland oil funds. Prop. 6 cleared the way for Alamitos Bay improvements including modernization of Marine Stadium West, a Marine park, launching ramp, maintenance buildings, an overlook park and Sea Scout headquarters. (Total $3,130,750.)

PROP. 7 approved expenditure of $908,760 for a Belmont Plaza Beach Center including parks, change stations, swimming pool at a site

California is due primarily to a slight falling away of favor among members of the public who identify themselves as Republicans. Since last October, for example, Kennedy's standing among Republicans has fallen by four percentage points in the "good job" category.

California rank-and-file Democrats, on the other hand, show relatively little change in their appraisal of the President's performance since last October.

JFK in Urgent Bid for Aged Medicare

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy sent congress an urgent new appeal Tuesday for passage of his program of medical insurance for the aged, financed by an increase in Social Security taxes.

The President's renewed plea for legislation to fill what he called "a gap in our self-financed, contributor social insurance system" topped a series of recommendations for improving the nation's health.

Other major points included these:

1. A nationwide vaccination program to help stamp out polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus. The federal government would pay the full cost of vaccines for all children under 5 and help state and local communities immunize adults.

2. Renewal of Kennedy's request for a 10-year program of federal aid for the construction and expansion of medical and dental colleges, and for scholarships to help talented but needy students.

3. Expanded federal outlays totaling $182 million for mental health, control of air and water pollution, medical research and other health programs, including $25 million for the immunization drive.

4. Federal loans to help provide centers for group practice by physicians and dentists, especially in smaller communities.

PROSPECTS for passage of Kennedy's medical care program this year were termed "quite good" by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana. Mansfield gave this opinion after he had and other Democratic leaders held their weekly breakfast with Kennedy at the White House.

Over the weekend Mansfield had been quoted as saying the odds appeared to be against passage of the plan.

The program faces some of its stiffest opposition in the House Ways and Means Committee. Mansfield said he is "quite hopeful" the committee will release the bill for action by the full House.

HOUSE Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, who also attended the White House session, told reporters he had a "strong feeling of confidence that the plan will pass the House if it gets out of committee."

He said backers of the plan will need two or three more votes to get it out of the Ways and Means Committee.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he knows of no change in the opposition of a majority of Republicans to link-

Fishermen Stranded on Island

SAN DIEGO (AP)—A Navy destroyer was ordered Tuesday to go to the rescue of seven or more shipwrecked fishermen on a tiny island in the southeastern Pacific Ocean.

The guided-missile destroyer USS Robinson is expected to reach Clipperton Island, off the coast of Mexico and 1,400 miles south of here, Thursday morning.

The crew of the San Diego tuna clipper Monarch was found by the Mexican fishing boat Fanita. A message said there were 10 men on the uninhabited, coral island, and that they had been living for three weeks on wild pigs and birds' eggs. The Fanita, too small to take them off, was standing by.

How the 80-foot Monarch was wrecked was not reported in radio messages. It left here Jan. 16.

A customs broker said a crew of seven was aboard when it sailed. He explained that it could have picked up three other crewmen at a Mexican port.

Navy sources said the destroyer was off Central America when dispatched to the island.

Clipperton, which belongs to France, was the scene of a rescue of nearly starved colonists in 1917 by the U. S. Navy gunboat Yorktown.

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—Discoverer 38 rocketed into orbit on a secret mission Tuesday. The Air Force did not disclose the satellite's altitude or the length of time it takes to whirl around the earth.

HEADS EXCHANGE

L.A.C. SAYS: Let's Compare Trends

One of our readers was upset over our column in which we showed what taxes were paid by varied income groups. He referred to our "laxitis complex" and challenged us to compare today's taxes and general economy with 1927—a year which we happened to mention. His theory is that we should not worry about higher taxes because our incomes are so much higher.

We certainly agree that our higher incomes should provide more taxes—and that inflation has caused the cost of government to soar—as has the cost of living. But the past week some rather startling figures were released. They show that the federal taxes for the President's 1963 budget average $508 for every man, woman and child in the nation. In California the average is $633 per capita.

When we compare this $93 billion budget with the $2.9 billion for 1927 we find the per capita tax was then about $24.50. That is an increase of 2,000 per cent. The Bureau of Labor Statistics shows the cost of living since then has increased about 130 per cent. It is probable wages and salaries have increased 300 per cent. But the amount taken by the federal government is many times greater than these factors indicate.

The tax problem is not confined to increased federal taxes. Local and state taxes have increased at even higher rates. It is not that we cannot afford to pay present taxes. But if this trend of annually increased taxes—far above increases in income—is to continue, the burden will become unbearable. The percentage of incomes taken by taxes is now about 30 per cent—at present rates of increases we will soon be paying 50 per cent.

It may be argued that higher wages and luxuries will be made available to make up for this. But it is much more probable that spiraling inflation will destroy the value of all money and end in disaster. It has happened in country after country in the past. It is unrealistic to think it cannot happen here.

We agree we can all have complexes and see dangers that do not exist. But we doubt anyone can read the history of the last quarter century and what occurred in France, Italy, Germany and many Latin American countries—without being greatly concerned. In Russia this has not been of such concern—because Soviet workers work for government and have living standards much lower than those in the western nations. Those western nations saw values wiped out by inflation. They are not rapidly recovering—but are carefully avoiding the practice that caused their past troubles.

There is little hope that overall taxes will ever be reduced. But it is almost certain the rate of increase we have had—if continued—will destroy values and bring us to government controls that will destroy our freedoms. It would be foolhardy for the American people to ignore these trends—or fail to learn caution by comparing the past with the present.

Yugo Mine Blasts Kill 52, Hurt 11

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Two explosions in Yugoslavia's biggest lignite coal mine Tuesday killed 52 miners and critically injured 11, mine officials reported. Two others were missing and believed dead.

The blasts trapped 17 men below ground but quick work by rescuers saved 123 of them, officials added.

A committee of mining experts said their investigation indicated the explosion was in a storeroom of the shaft where explosives were stored.

THE COMMITTEE turned down an earlier theory that methane gas was responsible.

The accident at the Tito Mine at Banovici in central Yugoslavia was one of the country's worst mine disasters. It came two weeks after an explosion in the Voelklingen Mine in West Germany took 293 lives.

Families of the miners were waiting at the shaft entrance as the dead and wounded were removed.

THE NEWSPAPER Borba said the investigators found most of the men who died were suffocated by gases left by the blasts.

Eleven miners were in a hospital in critical condition, Radio Belgrade reported. About 20 other miners were treated at hospitals and sent home.

Mine officials said the two blasts came in quick succession just as an official was about to leave after a routine inspection in which he found nothing unusual.

N.Y. Stock Exchange Chief Indicted

Completed From Wire Services
J. Truman Bidwell, board chairman of the New York Stock Exchange, was indicted Tuesday on charges of evading $55,008 in federal income taxes. He immediately resigned, claiming persecution from "high places in Washington."

There was no indication in the grand jury complaint that the investing public suffered in any way. Bidwell called the charges a personal matter.

Bidwell was accused of concealing capital gains, and faking expenses for travel, charitable contributions and entertainment. He could go to prison for a maximum 10 years if convicted.

The grand jury accused Bidwell of listing joint income with his wife for 1956 and 1957 as $124,404, when the actual income totaled $208,202. As a result, the complaint added, Bidwell listed taxes due for the two years as $55,035, when the figure should have totaled $110,943.

'INTERNATIONAL'

Gen. Lucius D. Clay Tuesday in Berlin said West Berlin should be made into "a really international industrial and production area." In an interview President Kennedy's special envoy to Berlin added: "We must create strong industrial attractions in West Berlin. Perhaps the city, while waiting to become the capital of a united Germany, must seek its future in the international area."

Prince Philip's plane-train-car-boat tour of Latin America took him Tuesday to La Paz, capital of Bolivia.

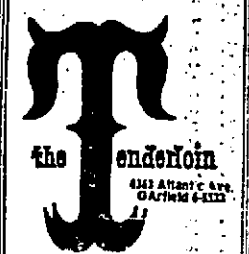

REVERSED

The Los Angeles District Court of Appeal Tuesday reversed a $65,700 damage award to actress Bette Davis.

Miss Davis had been awarded the payment for personal injuries on June 22, 1958, as the result of a fall down a flight of basement stairs in a house she had rented in Brentwood. The defendants in the action, filed their appeal last Nov. 28.

In the unanimous decision setting aside the $65,700 judgment, the appellate court ruled that a Superior Court judge had erred in his instruction to the jury which made the award to the actress.

You Get Kind of Police You Deserve

Dr. Al Germann, head of the department of police science and administration at Long Beach State College, has just written a book, "Introduction to Law Enforcement," in collaboration with Frank Day, a police-administration professor at Michigan State University, and Robert R. J. Gallati, assistant chief inspector of the New York City Police department and commanding officer for Manhattan.

Both Al and Professor Day, in addition to their academic degrees, have had thorough experience as working police officers—Germann with the Los Angeles PD and Day with the New York City force. What they have to say, therefore, has to be listened to with respect.

WELLS

For instance: "... either the police perform effectively through public cooperation with minimum force, or the police perform effectively without public cooperation through brutal force. ...

"In general, people receive the quality of law enforcement service that they deserve. If they are apathetic, vegetative, insensitive and ignorant, their law enforcement services will probably be instruments of power, rather than instruments of protection; and instruments of selfishness, rather than instruments of service.

"In general, a law-enforcement agency is an accurate barometer in gauging the moral tone of the community. If graft, corruption, simony, nepotism and violence are accepted phenomena throughout the governmental, educational, industrial, commercial religious and social groupings, then so, too, throughout the law enforcement structure.

"In general, the law enforcement service progresses according to the quality of public administration in any locale. If trained, carefully selected, conscientious public servants are the general rule, and not the exception, then, too, will such personnel be found in the law enforcement service."

A Drab Outlook

Did you read that item in Tuesday's paper about the Irish Republican Army surrendering and giving up its campaign to take North Ireland away from the bloody British by force?

I suppose that it is a good thing. I mean, it's going to be easier on Ulster police stations and notary publics and other things that were getting blown up by the IRA. Nevertheless, a world without the IRA seems a little drab.

And it was only a month or two ago that Gen. De Gaulle indicated his intention of disbanding the famed Foreign Legion after the Algerian Peace is signed. As a lad who grew up on "Beau Geste" and the other novels of Percival Wren, I hate to hear the Legion's bugles silenced.

I guess the only thing left for us soldiers of fortune is the Ranier ale walkathon from San Francisco to the Seattle World's Fair (To return empty ale bottles to the brewery, natch).

Spies' Reports

One of this column's spies—they're everywhere—was out at Community Hospital Sunday. He was almost astounded as the nurses in the corridors to hear, "Dr. Kildare. Dr. Kildare, please," come booming through the hall speakers. Somebody trying a tired gag on a telephone operator, who fell for it.

Dean Ives swears he had a couple of live ones in the Turf Cafe at closing time the other night, and one asked the other:

"Say, what does your wife say when you stay out this late?"

"Nothing," replied his confrere.

"I'm not married."

The first guy finished his drink and thought about this for a while.

"Well, then," he said disbelievingly, "why do you stay out this late?"

Nixon Backs JFK Drive for Tariff Cuts

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon tackled international and local issues Tuesday and related both to his campaign for the Republican nomination for governor.

He called the European Common Market the "most exciting development in the free world since communism became a threat," and one which bears directly on California's economy.

Nixon supported the Kennedy administration's drive for lower tariffs, but disagreed with administration suggestions that subsidies be given to industries that become noncompetitive because of tariff reductions.

IN A ROTARY Club lunch speech, he said the state ranks third in the nation in manufacturing for export. Manufactured exports, he said, totaled $1.3 billion last year plus a half billion dollars worth of agricultural and mineral products.

At a Lincoln-Jefferson dinner Nixon noted forecasts that before the year-end California will have the largest population in the nation. But, he said, "numbers are not enough."

"What matters is quality, in government and public services, in sustained economic growth, in schools and hospitals, libraries and museums, highways and transit systems, and in meeting all the needs of the people of California. ...

"PRESENT tax rates cast increasing doubt about California as an attractive area for job-producing economic expansion.

"And the governor has not yet requested nor has the legislature passed any legislation that requires any instruction about communism and its dangers. As a result, in many of our schools, the teachers are understandably afraid to take the initiative in providing such instruction. ...

"The people of California ought to be given a real choice this year between four more years of dull mediocrity in high places or a rebirth of dynamic leadership."

$142 Million for U of C Left in Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—An Assembly ways and means subcommittee Tuesday approved Gov. Edmund G. Brown's full $142,730,000 budget to operate the University of California.

The seven-member subcommittee turned down a request by legislative analyst A. Alan Post to trim $481,520 from the money bill by increasing fees.

Post had suggested boosting fees charged to non-residents, medical students and law students.

But Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton, D-Merced, told the subcommittee that the Coordinating Council for Higher Education planned to study student fees at junior colleges, state colleges and the university.

"I hate to shoot right now and not be sure I'm aiming at anything," Winton said in reference to raising fees for only three classes of students.

In the Rotary Club speech, he stressed interdependence of nations.

"WE CAN NO more live apart from the Common Market," he said, "than can Great Britain."

He said President Kennedy has asked for general authority to reduce tariffs by 50 per cent in reciprocal negotiations.

"The only reaction the United States can have," he said, "is to recognize that these barriers must come down. We must do more than the Kennedy administration has suggested."

But he said that any subsidy program for industries hurt by tariff changes "only postpones the day of reckoning. It does not go to the heart of the problem."

"AMERICAN industry can compete with industries abroad and maintain our higher wage scales provided the American free enterprise system is given a chance to work at full efficiency," he continued. "This means that government, business and labor policies which restrict the ability of American industry to compete on an equal basis must be modified. "The greatest need is for a tax-reform program at the federal, state and local level which will stimulate economic growth through new investment and replacement of obsolescent machinery on a massive basis."

Rebels OK Algerian Pact

ALGIERS (AP)—The Algerian rebel parliament agreed in Tripoli Tuesday to Paris-approved peace terms, informed sources said. But the rightist Secret Army Organization, vowing to keep, Algeria French, and North African Moslems fought on.

Though French authorities looked for a quick cease-fire in the 7½-year-old nationalist rebellion, the chance for a corresponding end to the terrorist bloodshed looked remote.

French Premier Michel Debre ordered French military commanders to deploy reserve forces through Algeria's major cities to curb the killings. But the day's toll was 16 dead and 33 wounded. Six persons were slain and 23 wounded in Algiers alone.

GUNMEN, believed working for the Secret Army Organization's treasury, staged a series of holdups in Algiers, Constantine in the east and Oran in the west that netted $158,000.

The 54-member rebel parliament—officially called the National Council for Algerian Revolution—has been meeting in secret since last Thursday at Tripoli, Libya's capital, to weigh the peace accord reached in Switzerland by their deputy premier, Belkacem Krim, and the French minister for Algerian affairs, Louis Joxe.

Well informed sources said the closing meeting was devoted to drafting an announcement of acceptance. They voted to accept the Paris forecast, however, that the announcement would be withheld until the rebel leaders return to their headquarters in exile in Tunis. France's cabinet approved the agreement last week.

THE AGREEMENT calls for a cease-fire and a transitional period in which a self-determination referendum will be held in Algeria. With North Africans making up about 90 per cent of Algeria's 10 million people, the referendum is expected to show an overwhelming vote for independence from France.

Under the pact there are guarantees for the European minority, French use of the Mer-el-Kebir Naval Base outside Oran and French interests in the Sahara oil fields.

ON CENSORSHIP

Thurmond Clashes With Rusk's Aide

WASHINGTON (AP)—Undersecretary of State George W. Ball's refusal Tuesday to answer off the cuff why State Department censors changed specific speeches by military men drew accusations of evasion from Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C.

Ball insisted at the resumption of the Senate inquiry into Thurmond's "muzzling"—the military charges that he is within his rights in demanding time to answer the questions in writing after a detailed study.

Thurmond asked why Ball hadn't gotten the replies ready before coming to testify. He suggested Ball should have studied a two-inch-thick compilation of censorship changes the senator contends prove his charges.

BALL, THE NO. 2 State Department official, replied: "I'll give you a very good answer. I am the undersecretary of state. There are only 24 hours in the day. And if I tried to study that book in detail I would have had no time to do anything else for a couple of weeks."

Thurmond retorted that Ball wanted to take plenty of time "so you can fix up the answers in technical words." Finally in obvious annoyance, the senator told the undersecretary: "I don't see any use wasting time because you are not answering anything."

BALL SAID Thurmond tended to oversimplify matters in his questions and he added: "We do ourselves a disservice and the free world

Chairman George B. Miller, D-Calif., called them: "The three men who have been closest to the angels."

James E. Webb, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, told the committee that his agency planned to spend $35 billion on the project over the next 10 years. And he expressed every confidence that this country would land a manned spacecraft on the moon before 1970 — and ahead of Russia.

Webb also disclosed that there would be an announcement in the next two weeks concerning the training of more astronauts.

Meanwhile, the White House said the civilian space agency had been asked to recommend a "proper program" for Glenn which possibly would include a series of public appearances.

The request followed a discussion between President Kennedy and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, head of the space council.

Peace Corps Boss to Ask $63 Million

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver said Tuesday he will go before Congress later this week to ask for a $63 million budget for his agency for next year.

The corps is getting $30 million in the current fiscal year.

Flood waters ran three to six feet deep at Inez.

Hundreds more families were evacuated from low-lying areas in three West Virginia counties and roads were blocked at numerous points in a half dozen counties as flood waters surged over wide areas.

In Wayne County some houses were reported flooded up to the second floor and the community of Wayne isolated when a bridge washed out.

a disservice when we oversimplify."

He said also that Thurmond was trying to get solid answers to hypothetical questions.

The upshot of the peppery exchange was that the investigating Senate armed services subcommittee agreed to provide Ball with a list of speech changes it wants explained.

"I will come up, or Secretary (of State Dean) Rusk will come up, and you can cross-examine," Ball said. "You tell me which ones you want."

Thurmond said he would have "a lot of questions" then.

THE EXCHANGE between Thurmond and Ball came after the undersecretary had defended the department's speech censors as real professionals. He said only such experts can deal with the Communists' "gigantic propaganda machine" in view of the intricate, subtle, changing and uncertain course of foreign affairs.

These censors, Ball said, reviewed more than 2,000 speeches and articles in the past three years "to insure not only that the government speaks with one voice but that that voice advances and does not impair our foreign policy." He conceded that the system could be improved and that human errors are made in the censoring.

Indonesian War Threat Voiced by Sukarno's Aide

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution said Tuesday the West New Guinea dispute with the Netherlands must be settled this year "even if it means war with all its consequences."

The national security minister spoke at a meeting of his regional military commanders at a mountain resort near the West Java city of Bogor.

President Sukarno, over the weekend, ordered full mobilization of all persons between the ages of 18 and 40 in his campaign to enforce Indonesia's claim to Dutch-held West New Guinea.

Des Moines, Iowa, snow-covered for a record 82 consecutive days, expected a new fall of up to 4 inches. Six Iowa deaths were related to snow that started last weekend.

The temperature plummeted to an unofficial -44 degrees in northwestern North Dakota and to near 30 below in western Montana and northern Minnesota.

BISMARCK, N.D., had a record low for the date of -26 and Omaha had a record low for the date of -8.

The wintry blasts reached into parts of the South. Heavy snow fell in northern Arizona, where Flagstaff recorded 16 inches on the ground. Highway travel was dangerous. Sleet, freezing rain and light snow slicked roads in northern Arkansas.

State OKs Funds for L.B. Arena

Expenditure of $647,735 from city tideland oil trust funds to equip the new Long Beach Arena was approved formally Tuesday by the State Lands Commission.

Use of the money for this purpose was assured by passage of Proposition A in Tuesday's special election. The proposition allows city council to spend a maximum of $500,000 annually on tideland projects from the oil funds without specific vote.

The new arena, adjacent to Municipal Auditorium, is in the tideland area.

The expenditure will provide such items as 7,000 upholstered folding chairs, 500 banquet tables, pianos, lighting, material trucks, carpentry tools and janitorial equipment.

expressed disappointment over loss of the new library proposition:

"Even though our committee members are pleased that we received so many favorable votes, we feel that a golden opportunity was passed to achieve a significant educational and cultural contribution for the city."

"WE REGARD the yes votes as a mandate to continue our efforts in behalf of a new main library building; and we regard the opposing viewpoint as a challenge to our ability to convince additional thousands of our citizens of the need for this facility."

"We would like to thank all of those who worked so hard in behalf of this proposition, and we hope that they will not be discouraged and will join us in continuing our efforts to secure a badly needed main library in Long Beach."

The crash on U.S. Highway 81 about 10 miles south of this south central Texas city injured five persons, including bus driver Lawrence Clayton, seriously enough that they required hospitalization.

The other five passengers were released after examination and treatment for what a hospital spokesman called minor injuries.

Bixby Park Auto Plan Still Open

In a rare disagreement with City Manager John R. Mansell, city councilmen Tuesday refused to accept his rejection of a proposal for angle parking on streets adjacent to Bixby Park.

Instead, they asked him to take a second look at a request from the Bixby Park Shuffleboard Club that the streets be widened and the new parking system authorized.

Mansell said it has been the policy of the city manager's office for many years to recommend against angle parking because of the hazard and congestion of cars backing out from the curb.

THE STREET widening would destroy a parkway area necessary for park beautification, he said.

Dissenting, Councilman Bert B. Bond asserted there would be no hazard if cars were backed into the parking spaces. He also objected to excessive red curb space in the area.

On Bond's motion, the council voted to send Mansell's report back to him for further study.

Commons OKs Immigrant Ban Hit as Color Bar

LONDON (AP)—The House of Commons Tuesday formally approved a controversial bill aimed at limiting immigration into Britain—a bill denounced as a virtual color bar.

Home Secretary Richard Butler called the bill "necessary but distasteful." The opposition Labor Party described it as "barefaced race discrimination."

The bill is aimed at curbing an influx of immigrants from the West Indies, India and Pakistan. It forbids entry to anyone who has no guarantee of employment.

Tens of thousands of colored immigrants have poured into Britain, leading to complaints they may put British workers out of jobs.

000 to $500,000 the limit the city may spend from tideland funds, without a city-wide vote, for minor tideland improvements. This vote will expedite shoreline development and simplify administration of the fund.

PROP. B, a companion measure, removes a $500,000 annual ceiling on tideland oil funds that may be spent for maintenance of shoreline projects and for such purposes as lifeguard and beach cleaning services.

JFK Urges Medicare for Aged ing medical care for the aging to the Social Security system.

Kennedy proposed in his message to Congress that the cost of providing health insurance for the aged be met by a Social Security tax increase of 1/4 of 1 per cent each on employers and wage-earners, starting next Jan. 1.

HE ALSO proposed that the maximum earnings base on which the tax is levied be increased from $4,800 a year to $5,200.

The estimated $1.6-billion first-year cost of the program would be more than covered by such an increase.

The Social Security tax is now 3 1/4 per cent and is scheduled to rise to 3 3/4 per cent next Jan. 1 regardless of what happens to the health plan. If the health plan is enacted, the tax will go up to 3 1/2 per cent.

Kennedy told Congress that older people are unable to afford private health insurance.

"TODAY, only about half of our aged population has any health insurance of any kind," he said, "and most of these have insufficient coverage."

Replying to critics who contend the plan would lead to "socialized medicine," Kennedy said:

"This program of course would not interfere in any way with the freedom of choice of doctor, hospital or nurse. It would not specify in any way the kind of medical or health care or treatment to be provided."

Health Plan Not Needed, Says AMA

CHICAGO (AP)—The president of the American Medical Association commenting on President Kennedy's program for health insurance for the aged, said Tuesday "the real issue is not medical care versus no medical care for the elderly."

He added in a statement: "The real issue is: Should wage earners and employers be forced to pay a substantial increase in taxes to provide medical care for millions financially able to take care of themselves."

"No one supporting this proposal has yet presented any evidence that such radical legislation is needed," said Dr. Leonard W. Larson of Bismarck, N.D.

"Contrary to what the President said, this legislation would interfere with the patient's freedom of choice of hospital and physician; would not be an insurance or prepayment program. As the Supreme Court of the United States has ruled, Social Security is strictly a tax program with current taxes used principally to provide benefits for those now retired."

Board Orders More Aerial Fire Fighters

A stepped-up program for using helicopters and other aircraft in fire-fighting operations in the forest areas of Los Angeles County was ordered Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors.

The board received a report from L. S. Hollinger, the county's chief administrative officer, that eight helicopters of the 13th Marine Air Wing at El Toro Marine Corps Air Station will be available this summer for emergency fire-fighting service.

Doubts Grand Jury Quiz on Baird Plea

I. P.T. Los Angeles Bureau

The foreman of the county grand jury said Tuesday he doubts that Councilman Andrew H. Baird's charge of "deception" in the municipal election ballot is a proper matter for the jury.

"It is doubtful whether it comes under the proper jurisdiction of the grand jury," Foreman Verne Orr said. Orr said he has referred Baird's letter to the jury's Audit and Governmental Efficiency Committee. The committee will meet next week or the week after, he said.

ORR EXPLAINED that the grand jury has broad investigating powers when dealing with county government. Its powers in connection with municipalities, however, are "relatively limited," he said. Baird filed a letter with the jury last Friday, asking it to investigate "apparent deception" in the ballot. He contended that neither the ballot itself nor the explanatory pamphlet accompanying the ballot informed the voter what the issue was on which he was voting.

Governor Supports Seizure of Files

By JERRY HARRELL
SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Brown, in a wide-ranging news conference Tuesday, talked about the seized National Guard files, the state college chancellorship and defense contracts.

state adjutant general from the San Diego Research Library in a National Guard armory contains military information. He backed the seizure by Maj. Gen. Roderic L. Hill and said he would not release the confidential information.

Attacked as "political nonsense" charges that California is not getting its share of defense contracts under the Kennedy administration. He said contracts last year totaled $5.67 billion compared with $4.83 billion in 1960, and were awarded on merit.

Noting reports that Vice Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke may be appointed to succeed Dr. Gallagher as state college chancellor, Brown said the trustees should not act "precipitately."

Gallagher resigned the $30,000-a-year job to return to his former post of president of City College of New York.

On defense contracts, Brown said he has been in contact with federal officials. "I will continue to press for more contracts, but I want to emphasize that I am not asking for it on any political basis. I am asking for it on the basis of technical skills and the economical operation of our plants," Brown said.

On other matters, the governor said he had canceled a trip to Japan scheduled for April to be on hand for the end of the legislative session.

He said he has an open mind about the state college trustees' plan to set up headquarters in Los Angeles, but said, "I am also interested in seeing that the seat of government remains in Sacramento."

Flee to Freedom in Snowstorm
COBURG, Germany (UPI)—An East German mother escaped over the mountains to the West with her three children by eluding Communist police during a heavy snowstorm, West German border police reported Thursday.

The woman and her children, aged 5, 7 and 10, walked for "several hours" over the Thuringian Mountains late last week while the snowfall provided cover against detection by People's Police.

They arrived in West Germany Friday, but declined to reveal how they picked their way through mine fields, barbed-wire fences and unfamiliar forests.

FAILURE OF THE CUBAN invasion cost the life of Jose Montes, whose mother, Mrs. Teresa Angulo (left), and sister-in-law, Mrs. Yolanda Montes, live in Long Beach. He was Cuban ambassador to Japan for Batista regime.

Cuba Invasion Failure Cost Life of Local Woman's Son

By ROBERT WILCOX

Mrs. Teresa Angulo, a "Gold-Star Mother" of the abortive Cuban invasion, wept softly as she tried—in broken English—to explain her premonition.

"I wrote to a friend and I say: If the United States don't go with them, it will be failure."

The failure cost the life of her son, Jose Montes, 38, who served as Cuban ambassador to Japan under the Batista regime.

MONTES PERISHED at sea between Cuba and the United States in a motorless boat which left the coastal battlefield with 22 men.

There was no food or water aboard, and just 15 remained alive when rescued off New Orleans three weeks later.

Mrs. Angulo is living in Long Beach at 208 E. Artesia St. with her other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rafael G. Montes, their three children, and Mrs. Montes' father, Antonio Millas, formerly a wealthy lawyer.

ALL ARE disillusioned, bitterly anti-Communist refugees from Castro terror.

Mrs. Angulo's nephew, Gustavo Garcia Montes, was one of the delegation of Castro prisoners sent to the United States in connection with the proposed tractor swap several months ago. She has a daughter still in Cuba.

Her son Jose's rising career as an ambassador came to an abrupt conclusion when Castro took power in January 1959. In Cuba on vacation at the time, Montes was jailed for seven days, released and then fled to the United States in April.

MRS. ANGULO left the following January and had been living with Jose in New Orleans for only two weeks when he told her he was going to Jamaica to see about a job. Instead, he went to Guatemala to train secretly for the invasion.

MRS. ANGULO left the following January and had been living with Jose in New Orleans for only two weeks when he told her he was going to Jamaica to see about a job. Instead, he went to Guatemala to train secretly for the invasion.

"But I was suspicious," said the mother. "Instead of giving me a Jamaica address he gave me a post office box number."

As rumors of the pending invasion came, she said, "My heart was terrible—crying all the days." A month after the April attack, Mrs. Angulo's premonition came true.

"THEY TOLD me my son was very brave," she said. "He is one of the oldest ones in the boat and he rows until he is very tired. Then he die."

His body was thrown into the sea three days before the rescue.

About 100 Southland Cuban refugees—Mrs. Angulo and family among them—met last Sunday in a Catholic church. To make their feelings and their hopes unmistakable, they all signed a delicately homemade Cuban flag. It will be smuggled into the anti-Castro rebel camp high in the hills of their homeland.

Lawyer's Essay Best in 'Anti-Birch' Contest

SANTA BARBARA (AP)—Howard Richards, 23, a Santa Barbara attorney, Tuesday won the $1,000 first prize in a nationwide essay on character assassination.

The contest was originated by Thomas M. Storke, editor-publisher of the Santa Barbara News-Press, after Robert Welch, head of the John Birch Society, announced an essay contest on "Grounds for the Impeachment of Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren."

Theme of the contest sponsored by Storke was: "The problem of character assassination: 1. legal redress; 2. psychiatric remedy."

RICHARDS, a native of Redlands, who recently moved to Santa Barbara, received his law degree at Stanford University last year and was admitted to the California Bar last month.

Harvey London of Cleveland won the $500 second prize. He is on leave from the Johns Hopkins University Medical School, studying at Ohio State University for a career in psychiatric research. Joseph A. Yocum, a student at the Indiana University Law School, won a $100 honorable mention prize.

AFTER receiving the award, Richards said: "If we as Americans are going to discuss our common problems realistically, we must have a certain amount of respect for each other."

"No intelligent discussion is possible where the participants are ready to call each other 'pro-Communist' or 'neo-Fascist' at the drop of a hat. In such an atmosphere the real world becomes lost in a fog of angry emotion and suspicion."

"There is in this country a dangerous tendency to substitute character assassination for serious consideration of important public issues."

Why Can't You Remember

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training methods in a new book, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply send your request to: Memory Studies, 835 Diversey Parkway, Dept. 8202, Chicago 14, Ill. A postcard will do.

Rancho Additions Design Authorized

By P.T. Los Angeles Bureau

DOWNEY—Agreements for architectural services on three new buildings at Rancho Los Amigos Hospital, with a total estimated cost of $3,615,000, were authorized Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors.

Largest of the three is the $2.6-million medical services building, which will be built in part with federal funds.

M. A. Nishkian, 3754 Long Beach Blvd., Long Beach, will prepare plans and specifications for the project at a fixed fee of $52,500.

J. S. Hollinger, county chief administrative officer, said the medical services building will "permit consolidation and expansion of medical services for Rancho Los Amigos Hospital and will become the core or center of medical services for the hospital."

Pipefitter Drowns in Bathtub

TORRANCE—A pipefitter, who apparently fell asleep while taking a bath, was found drowned in the bathtub of his hotel room Tuesday.

The victim, William Meadow, 58, was discovered by the manager of the Brighton Hotel, 1629½ Cabrillo Ave.

Bicycling Aide to Sheriff Hurt

NORWALK—Lt. Wallace F. Hunt, 39, of the Norwalk Sheriff's Station, was injured Tuesday afternoon while riding to the station on his bicycle.

Hunt was on his way to work when struck by an auto driven by Marvin Morris Jr., 28, of Los Angeles. The officer was taken to St. Francis Hospital, Lynwood, for treatment of a possible fracture of the left leg and head injuries.

Morris was not held, officers said.

County Aid Urged for Fiesta

SAN PEDRO—County financial support of the revived Fishermen's Fiesta, which is scheduled the weekend of Aug. 31-Sept. 2, was proposed Tuesday by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

On his motion, the Board of Supervisors instructed the county's chief administrative officer to study possible inclusion of $15,000 in the 1962-63 county budget to help finance the event.

"No other event, with the possible exception of the Tournament of Roses, has ever resulted in as much local, national and world-wide publicity for the county and the port," Chace said.

The Fishermen's Fiesta was an annual affair for 11 years, but was discontinued after 1957 because of a temporary slump in the fishing industry. The county contributed $15,000 annually for past fiestas, Chace said.

Hughes at Fullerton to Hire 900

FULLERTON—The Hughes Aircraft plant here will hire 900 additional workers by June, a company executive said Tuesday.

More than 50 contracts calling for the development of land- and sea-based radars, air-defense systems, computers and electronic display systems are responsible, C. Harper Brubaker said.

Prayer Day Set

World Day of Prayer will be observed Friday, March 9, in all Long Beach schools with 10 seconds of silent meditation.

Storm Victim's Body Recovered

A body found floating off the Navy mole Tuesday has been identified tentatively as that of James E. Fowlie, 20, of Eagle Rock, missing since his life raft overturned in Los Angeles River Feb. 11.

A blue steel crash helmet still was strapped to the body, lifeguards said. Fowlie was wearing an identical helmet when he and another youth tried to ride the rain-swollen river from Los Angeles to the Long Beach Harbor.

Motivation Topic

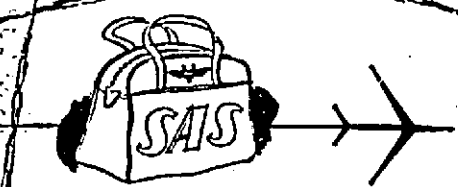

Consumer buying motivation will be discussed when the Chamber of Commerce Community Forum meets at 7:15 a.m. today in the Crown Cafeteria, 101 Alamos Ave. The speaker is William K. OpDyke, secretary of the Business Outlook Conferences of the Los Angeles chamber.

Quizzing of U2 Pilot Nears End, Public Appearance Likely Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Inter-rogation of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers Tuesday was reported nearing an end with an indicated conclusion he had conducted himself about as well as possible on his spy-plane flight over Russia.

Officials said he may appear in public within a few days—before a congressional committee with a news conference possibly to follow. No date has been set.

THE SENATE Armed Services Committee announced it would receive a closed-door briefing on the Powers case at 10 a.m. Thursday from John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and then decide whether to seek testimony from Powers himself.

Chairman Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., said his House Foreign Affairs Committee plans to question Powers in executive session, probably next week.

CIA officials who reportedly felt Powers let them down by permitting the Russians to capture him and his plane are now represented as having changed their minds.

CONGRESSIONAL sources said Powers had been unable to clear up what brought his plane down, other than that there was an explosion nearby. But CIA officials were reported satisfied Powers had given the Russians only minimal information during his later trial and imprisonment.

The inquiry was conducted at CIA request, by a presidentially appointed board

CHP Pay Hike Called Vital

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A $1-million pay raise for California's 2,700 highway patrolmen was recommended Tuesday by an Assembly Ways and Means subcommittee.

CHP Commissioner Bradford Crittenden said if the 10-per-cent increase is not granted "I will have a real problem on my hands from the standpoint of the administration of the department as a whole."

He told the committee that CHP recruiting efforts were being hurt because the state traffic officers receive less money than policemen in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland.

The committee's recommendation now goes to the full

Ways and Means Committee. A Senate subcommittee has taken the raise under submission.

Saves Cash in Fire but Man, 83, Burnt

An 83-year-old man suffered burns of the face, hands and neck Tuesday while he retrieved his life savings from his flaming apartment at 25 N. Daisy Ave.

William J. Johnston told Officers W. K. Dauley and R. G. Smith he was awakened about 7:30 a.m. by heat and smoke from his burning mattress. He said he started to leave the apartment but returned to get his savings, which he had stored in a tobacco can.

The officers said they found him groping his way down a smoke-filled stairway tightly clutching the tobacco can in his hands.

JOHNSTON, who was treated in St. Mary's Hospital and then released, said the blaze started when he placed a new heater too close to his bed.

The elderly man said he used a wet sponge to put out the fire but that it flared anew a few minutes later.

Officers Dauley and Smith awakened the only other occupant of the two-story frame

Bruce, Home Confer LONDON (UPI) — U.S. Ambassador David K. E. Bruce met Tuesday with British Foreign Secretary Lord Home. The meeting was called at Bruce's request.

'Chill Wills Day' Celebration in Hometown Makes Actor Weep

SEAGOVILLE, Tex. (AP) — This little hamlet hard by the Dallas skyscrapers observed "Chill Wills Day" Tuesday and the sometime controversial actor said he "could almost cry."

Fact is, he did a time or two. Once was when Mrs. Myrtle Roby kissed him. The aged woman — "in her 80s," the folks said — was the person who pinned Chill's first diaper after he was born in a tiny clapboard house here, 25 miles from what is now downtown "Big D."

Another time was when Mayor A. B. Schwarz gave the western actor a large golden key, inscribed, "to Chill Wills, the town is yours."

"LORDY, LORDY!" Chill exclaimed to 200 luncheon guests, "wonder if it'll unlock 'Gallaher's Drive-in'?" J. P. Gallaher is warden for the federal correctional institution, a minimum-security federal reformatory here.

City Secretary Clyde Kimes unveiled an oil portrait of Wills in the mayor's office and a photographer snapped Chill's photograph in front of the painting, the latest portrait by Dmitri Vail, Dallas' internationally known artist. The luncheon followed a parade, in which Chill drove a buggy, and a 30-minute show at the prison where the screen and television veteran soon had the inmates in the aisles.

"THEY LET me out," Chill observed at the luncheon, "but I had to bring the warden with me."

The shindig continued well into the night and nearly everything was closed Tuesday afternoon. The local movie house gave a free showing of "The Yearling," one of Chill's first motion pictures, and kept it running until the last person showed up.

A planned picnic and "box supper," where everybody brings his own lunch and spreads it picnic style, was moved into the school gymnasium, after which everybody planned to square dance until the wee hours.

Query Pilot on Saigon Bombing

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, Wednesday (UPI)—One of two "discontented" South Vietnamese pilots who bombed and strafed the presidential palace was being questioned today by intelligence officers.

They sought to learn whether the attack was part of an organized military plot to assassinate President Ngo Dinh Diem and overthrow his pro-Western regime.

Diem escaped uninjured in the early morning attack, but three other persons were reported killed and 20 others injured, including Diem's sister-in-law Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu who suffered "superficial" injuries.

There apparently was no connection between the attack and the campaign being waged against the Diem government by the Viet Cong Communist guerrilla forces.

An American watching the attack on the palace in Saigon was injured fatally in a fall from his apartment. He was identified as Sidney Ambrose, 59, a native of Ferndale, Calif., whose legal address as released by the U. S. Embassy was given as Portland, Ore.

One of the attacking planes was shot down by antiaircraft batteries around the palace and crash-landed in the Khanh Hoi River. The pilot swam ashore and was captured. The other plane, with more than 50 bullet holes, landed in Phnom Penh, capital of Cambodia, and the pilot was held for investigation.

The attack touched off fires that destroyed the west wing of the rambling stucco palace.

2 Sentenced to Die

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—The army announced Tuesday two former army officers have been sentenced to death on conviction of plotting to assassinate President Francois Duvalier. The communique made no mention of an execution date.

Curses Flag; Jailed

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Roberto Sierra Partida, 22, an airport baggage carrier, was jailed for cursing the Mexican flag. He meant no offense to Mexico, he told police, he just hated flags in general.

Guantanamo Eyed

HAVANA (UPI)—Cuba has notified Russia that it plans to use "legal means" to force the United States out of its $76-million Guantanamo Naval Base. The Communist daily Hoy said Castro "expressed his determination to demand through international law the return of the only foreign military base, that of Caimanera (Guantanamo)."

Nehru Near Victory

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru's Congress Party virtually clinched victory in India's national election Tuesday night, but Communists capitalizing on local grievances picked up scattered strength. The Congress Party remained in the seat of power without a single opposition party to challenge the dominance it has held over India's affairs since independence in 1947. Congress' most controversial candidate, Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, pulled into a commanding lead.

De Gaulle, RFK Talk Friendly

PARIS (UPI) — Atty Gen. Robert F. Kennedy Tuesday gave President Charles de Gaulle a message from President Kennedy expressing U.S. "affection" and friendship. But he acknowledged that "certain misunderstandings" exist between Washington and Paris.

The younger Kennedy presented his brother's personal message during a 45-minute visit with De Gaulle at the Elysee Palace.

Kennedy, bare-headed and without an overcoat, left the palace with a big grin and said the atmosphere of the meeting was "very friendly."

A spokesman for Kennedy said he did not believe that De Gaulle gave a return message for President Kennedy but added that the attorney general will report to his brother on the meeting.

Kennedy leaves today by jet for New York and Washington.

U.N. Rebuffs Cuba Again

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Cuba Tuesday night received a third U.N. setback in two weeks on her charges that the United States is interfering illegally in Cuban affairs.

The Security Council decided against putting her latest complaint on its agenda. Only four council members voted to take it up. The other seven abstained. Seven affirmative votes were required.

Those in favor were the Soviet Union, Romania, Ghana and the United Arab Republic. The abstentions were the United States, Britain, France, Nationalist China, Chile, Ireland and Venezuela.

Earlier, by the same line-up, the council turned down a Soviet motion to let Cuba speak in the procedural debate to take up the case. This upheld is precedent against hearing outsiders before adopting its agenda.

Farm Safety Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy Tuesday proclaimed the week starting July 22 as National Farm Safety Week.

Moscow TV Jests at RFK's Travels

MOSCOW (UPI) — Moscow, television, in an animated cartoon lampooning the world tour of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, Monday night showed the President's brother flying through the Far East, powered by whirling propellers on his back. Each time Kennedy tried to land an unseen heckler threw some object that splattered all over the attorney general.

L.B. MUTE TESTIFIES

Hand-Signal Gyp Charged to Pair

A Long Beach deaf-mute testified in Los Angeles Tuesday that he had been bilked of $600 by a deaf-mute couple after they told him in sign language that they had "inside information" on a horse race.

Claude B. Russell, 1905 E. First St., testified at a preliminary hearing for Royald James Burns, 56, and his wife, Stella, 52, both of Reno, Nev., on three counts of grand theft. He was one of three deaf-mutes testifying against the Burns couple at a hearing held in the prison ward of General Hospital where Burns is recovering from abdominal surgery.

After all of the testimony was taken in sign language and transcribed by two interpreters into the court record, the couple was held to answer.

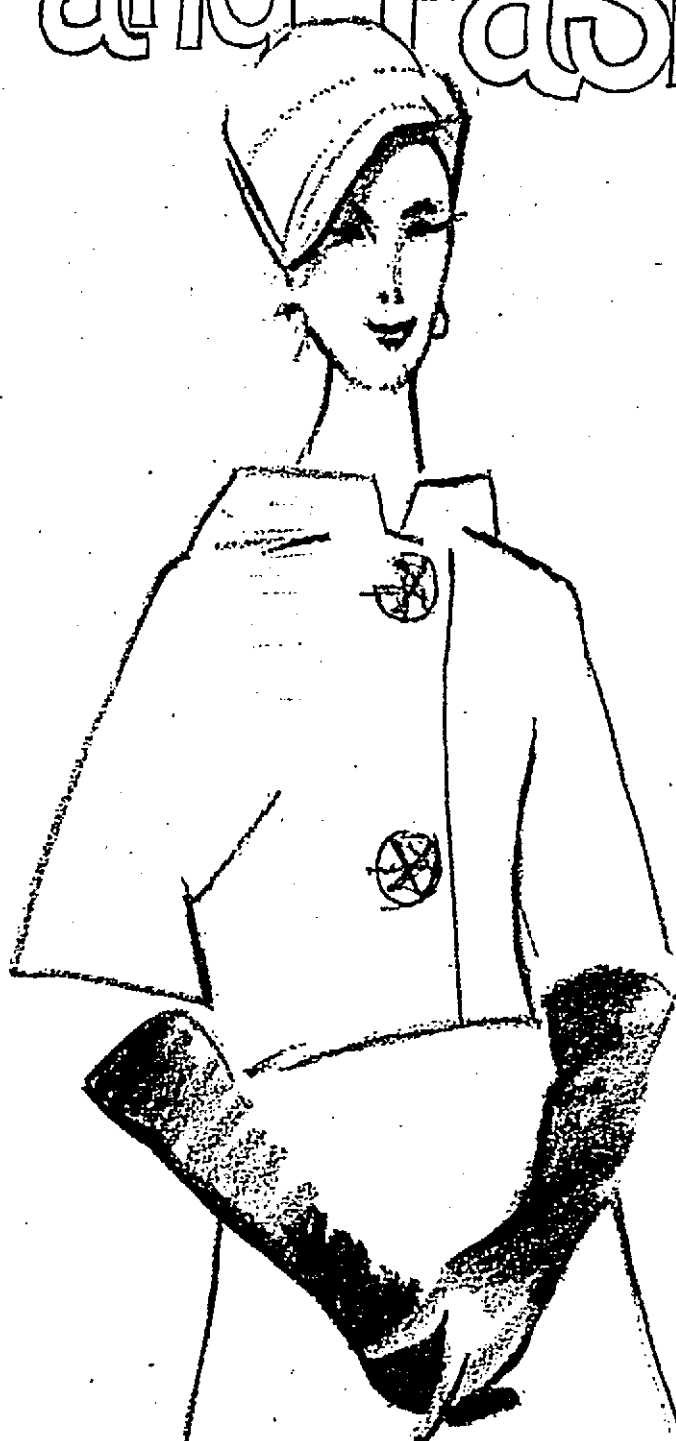

RUSSELL SAID he gave Burns the money in April 1959. Lucille Rita Deady of Van Nuys said she gave them $550 to bet after Burns told her he had inside information from jockey Willie Shoemaker. Shoemaker is expected to testify at the trial that he never heard of the couple.

A third witness, Pearl I. Biller of Los Angeles, testified that she was bilked of $2,660 between last Christmas and Jan. 2. She said she gave Burns $660 to bet on horses and another $2,000 to invest in oil land.

Despite local opposition, state highway engineers are going ahead with plans for a crosstown east-west freeway bisecting Long Beach south of Pacific Coast Highway.

U.S. Funds Sought by MTA

The Metropolitan Transit Authority board of directors Tuesday authorized filing of an application for federal funds to build a rapid-transit system between Long Beach and Los Angeles.

On motion of Fred S. Dean of Long Beach, vice chairman of the board, the directors instructed C. M. Gilliss, MTA executive director, to apply to the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency for "any funds that might be available for the Long Beach-Los Angeles, or any other extension, from the 'backbone route'."

The so-called "backbone route" running 22.7 miles from Beverly Hills to El Monte is considered by MTA directors as the vital portion for a successful rapid transit system.

GILLISS announced that a meeting in Los Angeles had been set for next Monday at which Mayor Edwin Wade of Long Beach, Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles and MTA officials would confer with Dr. John Kohl, the administrator responsible for the mass rapid-transit program in the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Tuesday morning, however, Gilliss said, he received a telegram from Jack Baedeker, MTA representative in Washington, D.C., reporting that Dr. Kohl had asked that the meeting be postponed until after March 15. Dr. Kohl said President Kennedy was to make a speech relative to urban transportation on March 15 and he wished to wait until after that time in

Chilly Bright Day Expected

Another day of chilly sunshine was predicted for today, with a low of 37 and a high of 60 expected.

Cool weather hit Long Beach Tuesday with a high of 59 and a low of 44.

Increasing cloudiness was expected Thursday, but no rain was foreseen. For mountain areas, a few light showers in north portions were expected.

Home Show Opening at Aud Today

The third Annual Long Beach Home-O-Rama will open at 5 p.m. today for a five-day run in the Municipal Auditorium under auspices of the Long Beach Builders Exchange.

The home show will be open from 5 to 11 p.m. through Friday and from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

An opening highlight will be selection of a queen and two princesses from nine Long Beach girls who will compete for the title on stage.

The Travelers Three, a folk-singing trio, will appear twice each weeknight and four times on Saturday and Sunday. Visitors to the show may see the entertainment without charge.

Two floors of the auditorium will be used for displays of various products for the home.

Phil Wiedrick is general chairman of the event for the builders and George Colours is producer-manager.

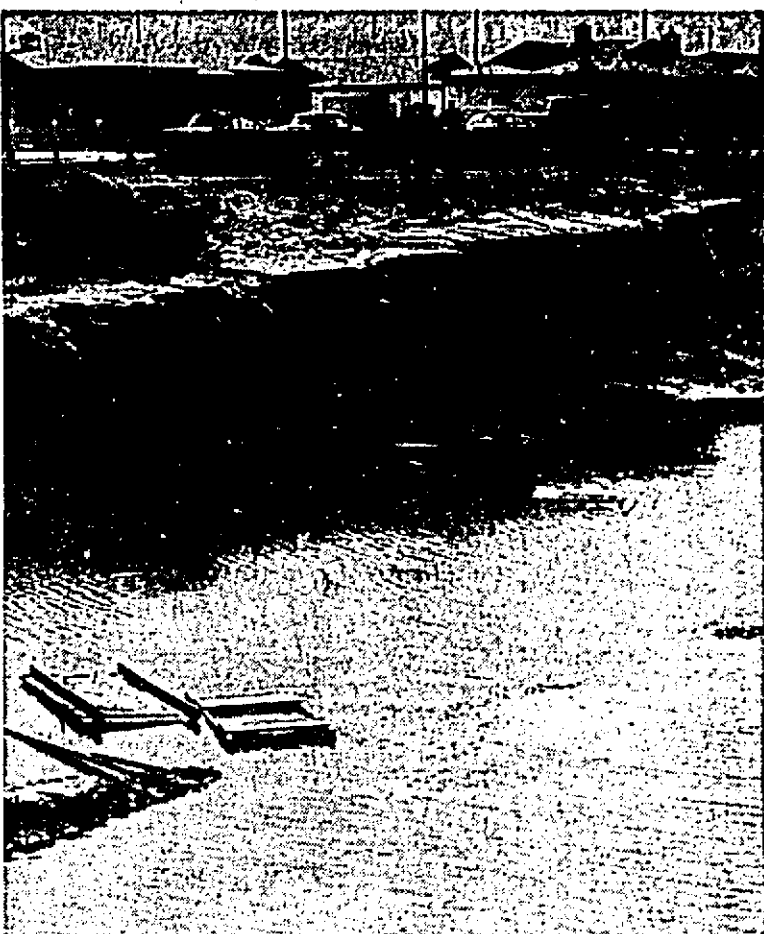

Plan Park for 400 Trailers

The Travel Trailer Clubs of America have voted to hold their 1963 convention next Jan. 11-13 in Long Beach.

Now all they are looking for is a suitable place where 400 trailers can be parked for the three days, a vice president of the organization, Harry E. Wade, told City Council Tuesday.

WADE RENEWED a plea that a facility be developed in El Dorado Park to accommodate the trailerites both for the convention and for frequent rallies. A proposal to that effect has been under consideration by city officials for six months.

Councilmen indicated a decision will be reached as soon as other pending proposals for park development are settled.

INVITATION TO DEATH: A raft on the lonely waters of an old brickyard pond in Torrance took the life of 6-year-old Greg Nissen Tuesday. Investigators study the raft (foreground) from which the boy fell into the muddy water.

Boy Dies in Pond at Old Brickyard

By DICK EMERY

Greg Nissen, 6-year-old son of a Los Angeles police motorcycle officer, drowned Tuesday afternoon when he fell from a raft into deep, muddy water in an old brickyard at 178th Street and St. Andrews Place in Torrance, police reported.

Detective Walter H. Nitz and Sgt. Jack Hahn of the Torrance police said Greg had been playing on the unfenced, unguarded pond with his brother, Anthony, 10 years old.

Torrance Parents Warned by Police

Torrance Police Chief Percy Bennett issued a warning to parents in the Torrance area Tuesday night after the drowning of Greg Nissen, 6 years old, in a brickyard pond. "Please watch your youngsters and keep them away from unsupervised ponds," he said. "If you see children playing around such places, please notify the police department at once. 'Many of these harmless looking pools of rainwater are deep and deadly.'"

THE BOYS went to Torrance with their mother, Mrs. Rene Nissen, from their home at 8116 Westman Ave., Whittier, to visit grandparents at 18002 Manhattan Place.

"The first word the mother received that anything had happened came from the older boy, Anthony, when he ran three blocks from the pond and told her Greg had fallen in," the investigators reported.

Several men working in a nearby flower nursery dived into the murky water searching for the boy. City firemen dragged the pond. A fireman diver found him lying on the bottom in six feet of water. Firemen tried to revive him and efforts were continued while an ambulance took him to Harbor General Hospital. There he was pronounced dead.

POLICE said they were told by housewives living near the old brickyard that children had been rafting on two ponds in the brickyard since the recent rains.

Mothers repeatedly have "shooed" youngsters from the area, police said. The ponds cover clay pits and are reported to be as deep as 18 feet in some places.

The boy's father, Officer Wallace Nissen, of 543B York Ave., Hawthorne, arrived at the scene after an ambulance had left with his son.

Bandits Bind Family, Take $80 and Gun

Two bandits, one armed with a .38-caliber revolver, tied up the owner of a motel at 446 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., his wife and son, and escaped with $80 and a shotgun Tuesday.

Mrs. Adeline O. Weeks, 48, said the men asked for a room at 3:20 a.m. and then displayed a revolver.

Her husband, George F. Weeks, 49, who was with her, and her son, Donald B. Weeks, 22, who entered carrying an unloaded 20-gauge shotgun during the holdup, were tied with scarves and pillowcases.

The robbers ransacked the Weeks' apartment and took young Weeks' shotgun, saying as they left:

"We aren't bad guys. If we were, we'd have killed you when you came in with the shotgun."

Townsend Luncheon Townsend Club No. 10 will hold a covered-dish luncheon at room Friday in Linden Hall, Broadway and Linden Avenue.

Trial for Murder by Surgery Ending

Defense attorney William T. Pillsbury Tuesday accused the district attorney's office of "backshot prosecution" in a murder-abortion trial in Superior Court here.

"They are hoping by a circle of inference to inundate the jury," said Pillsbury in his concluding arguments.

The trial concerns the disappearance of expectant mother Delores Mae Siddal, 29, of 737 Redondo Ave. Admitted to the murder-abortion abortionist Hugh M. Pheaster, 28, and Thomas F. Cicarelli, 47, are accused of slaying her.

IN HIS FINAL remarks to the jury, Pillsbury stressed that his client Cicarelli is not liable for prosecution merely because he once offered to drive Mrs. Siddal to Tijuana for an abortion.

Abortions are legal in Mexico. Pillsbury said it is ridiculous to try to link Cicarelli to the murder-abortion trial.

The prosecution has maintained that Mrs. Siddal died after an illegal operation by Pheaster, and that Cicarelli was the go-between.

In the concluding defense arguments for Pheaster, defense attorney William D. Began said Pheaster has bared all to jurors, including a confession of having performed three abortions.

Began said Pheaster's straightforward conduct included his testimony, his earlier trip to the district attorney's office and his agreement for lab tests on his surgical instruments during the trial.

THE DEFENSE is to resume its concluding arguments today; then the prosecution will present rebuttal arguments. The six-week-old trial is expected to go to a jury of seven men and five women on Thursday.

Jurors in Judge Beach Vasey's court also are trying Pheaster, Cicarelli and Conrad Couch, 34, on charges of abortion and conspiracy to commit abortion.

Jets in Collision

Marine Lt. Clifford Arthur Jackson, 29, of Anaheim, and another pilot ejected safely late Tuesday when their F84 Crusader jet fighters collided over Borrego Springs.

The planes were returning to Miramar from a training flight when the collision occurred. Observers said they were in flying formation.

Beach Combing
With Malcolm Epley

FELLOW who has done private polling on the subject reports that the designation "senior citizens" is heartily disliked by a lot of the people so categorized. Evidently, the opposition crystallized and became articulate after the term was formalized in the title of one of the measures on the municipal election ballot. (Prop. 4, the "senior citizens" center.)

The pollster ran into a group of older people at a voting place who, when asked, chorused that they hated the expression.

"I can't find anybody in the upper age bracket who likes it," the informant reports. "Where did it come from?"

Who knows? I suppose it was intended as a more dignified and kindly substitute designation for "old folks" or "elderly people," "old codgers," etc. Now the substitute is in disrepute.

All of which comes, no doubt, from the fact that advanced age is simply unwelcome. That being generally the case, probably there's no designation of the advanced age group that will ever be popular in that group. No matter how fancy and complimentary the term might be, it won't win plaudits from people who figure they're included and it means they're getting old.

One final thought: Perhaps there's too much of a tendency to classify and group people by age, anyhow.

THERE was a painful sequel in court to the story related here the other day about the Signal Hill gaming operation which, when raided by police, proved to be a money-raising affair planned as a benefit for a sick child.

When the four men and one woman who were arrested went into court, they were fined $52.50 each and given three years probation.

Under all the circumstances, this was pretty rugged—especially the probation angle. One of the "miscreants" tells me that was what really hurt, plus the judge's expression of some doubt that it was purely an amateur benefit affair.

NOW comes Mrs. Mary Hensley, 5571 Montlaco Rd., who identifies herself as the president of Xi Theta Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, an international non-academic sorority. This chapter, she said, sponsored the gaming operation benefit in behalf of the hospitalized child, whose mother has been connected with the sorority.

"This whole thing was done with sincerity and good intention," said Mrs. Hensley. "The sorority staged it as a benefit, and it was our purpose to give the money as a surprise contribution at another benefit event planned for Sunday in behalf of the girl."

"Her parents knew absolutely nothing about it. We just planned a party with fund-raising features that are quite common. It was strictly amateur and we didn't have professional equipment. Much time and effort went into it, all as a good cause."

"It ran afoul of the law, but I wish you'd make it clear that our motives were worthy and honorable."

THE JUDGE, incidentally, ordered some $183 seized at the party delivered to the parents for the hospitalized girl—a decision that pleases everybody.

But the rest of it is a sad story. Moralists will point out that it proves that the end doesn't always justify the means. That's no doubt true, but even so, one reviews it with a disturbed feeling.

Seldom has a worthily-motivated idea run into so much hard luck.

GERTRUDE BERG...

Generous Helping of Chic

By MARY ELLIS
L. P. T. Fashion Editor

Gertrude Berg, better known to audiences as homespun Molly Goldberg, has been big on radio (now TV) for more years than she cares to remember.

She's not only big in the entertainment world—she's pretty big physically, too. Not up, but out.

So be it. This outgoing charmer, who became a celebrity in spite of her proportions, is one woman who doesn't use a calorie slide rule every time she sits down to the table.

(She's 5-foot-4, doesn't know her weight because "I never get on the scales.")

"Oh, I suppose I should lose some weight," said she during a recent Long Beach visit to promote her Molly Goldberg dress line (carried at Penney's).

"But not too much. That would ruin the image."

INSTEAD, she covers "the image" with size 40 fashions designed to give her a size measure of chic.

And she does it so well that she's become the champion of oversized women everywhere.

Her dress line (she's been the company's inspiration for 10 years) incorporates all the figure-flattering, bulge-concealing ideas she uses in her own personal wardrobe designed by Hatie Carnegie, a New York house.

Turned out in sizes 16½ to 32½ (for shorter women) and 40 to 52, the creations, at economy prices, follow style trends, but are more geared to camouflaging figure problems.

AND SHE has some definite ideas about fashion trends—especially the fat variety.

"Don't be a slave to high fashion," said she. "Just because something's in vogue doesn't mean it's vogue for you."

Some of her other "don'ts" for the size-40-and-plus set:

Don't overdress. If you're wearing a print, be sure it's the small, overall type with not too much contrast. Take things off (jewelry and furbelows, that is) rather than pile them on.

Don't wear clothes too tight. And that goes for foundation garments. The too-tight look brings out bulges. And: "Larger women can wear knits—definitely—if not too tight."

Don't wear hemlines too short. Said she: "If the style is 12 inches, wear yours 11."

Don't wear spike heels if you're heavy. Her reason: "A graceful gait does more to improve the appearance than anything else."

Don't wear sleeves too short if your arms are heavy at the top.

AND SIZING UP life: "There no need for life to be mediocre, humdrum, homogenized and pasteurized."

Just like her new TV personality, Sarah Green, on the Gertrude Berg Show (originally Mrs. G Goes to College), Mrs. Berg feels that with the proper attitude and approach, life can be glamorous, exciting—even explosively enjoyable.

Her own interests, at the moment, include her five grandchildren (No. 6 is on the way), her television show, an upcoming trip to Hawaii, her successful autobiography, "Molly and Me" (now on the market) and her dress business.

All of which accounts for the fact she has no lounging clothes in her wardrobe. "I don't lounge," said she.

THE MERRY confusion of having a new baby daughter in the house probably won't deter Pat Brennan from her Rick Racker chores any more than NOT having a merry baby, in the house that is, has stopped her from being able chairman of the auxiliary these past months.

Pat and John brought Victoria Ann home from St. Mary's last Thursday to join her sisters and brother.

A series of lectures designed to alert the community to measures for keeping young people out of trouble will open next Sunday under sponsorship of First Christian Church, 125 E. Fifth St.

Lecturer Dorothy L. Keister of Loc Haven, Pa., will open her "Mission to Women" series at a 2:30 p.m. tea at the church. Her topic will be "Christianity and Juvenile Delinquency."

Miss Keister has degrees in education, church history and religious education, and has received honorary recognition from numerous academic fraternities.

Did you know that M. Thierry of Helena Rubenstein predicts that the spring-into-summer coiffure silhouette will be flatter on top and smooth, with plenty of width at the sides, either in sleek, turned-under rolls or brushed-out fluffiness?

Spring will herald the return of the part, high on the head, either at the center or three-quarters out to the side. The bang will practically disappear and for the woman who wishes a soft forehead line, there will be gentle waves on the temple.

Length will be below ear-tip, 2 inches at the nape, about 4 inches at the sides. Crown hair will not be tapered or short, but rather all of one length.

Hair coloring will be very important. The side movement will be accented by

Stronger Yet Safer—Gives Hours Of Relief From Minor CHRONIC PAINS OF ARTHRITIS

...even pains arising from deep in joints and bones so it's easier to move afflicted limbs again.

New York, N.Y.—No cure has yet been discovered for arthritis. And doctors constantly warn against fake remedies which claim to have "the answer."

But sufferers have found a way to get hours of the most comforting relief from arthritis and rheumatism's chronic minor pains. It's a combined action (both analgesic and anti-inflammatory) that relieves even pains arising from deep in joints and bones. Thus sufferers find they can move with greater freedom again. And this movement helps avoid "locked" joints.

The product that's giving such fast and effective relief is Anacin®. Anacin contains a stronger yet safer combination and may be taken as directed as "Life begins again with Pat Walker's Stauffer System," says Minni Alberti.

WOMAN LOSES 39½ POUNDS AND 29½ INCHES IN ONLY A FEW SHORT WEEKS

Mrs. Minni Alberti started treatment a few weeks ago. She has already become the attractive, beautiful woman she used to be. She says, "No more huffing and puffing for me, I never dreamed I could lose so easily, and feel so marvelous."

Mrs. Alberti took treatment recommended by Miss Pat Walker, nationally-known figure consultant—now exclusively at new Stauffer System Salon.

Minni has lost 3½ inches from her waist, 5½ inches from her abdomen, 3½ inches from each thigh. Now that she has completed her treatment she is again wearing an attractive size 12 dress. She was guaranteed these results.

Miss Pat Walker, figure consultant, will be pleased to answer any personal questions without any charge or obligation. Be sure it's the new Pat Walker's Stauffer System Salon for reducing—relaxing—beauty—health.

Oswald Jacoby Overbid Is Saved

For many years I have stressed that Blackwood and all similar conventions are used to bid slams when you have enough playing strength to make a slam provided your opponents aren't unkind enough to pick off a couple of aces first.

My new three no-trump gadget follows this principle. You should only use it when you are prepared to bid a small slam with a total of three aces and to bid either a small or grand slam with a total of four aces.

North and South should have no difficulty reaching a grand slam on today's hand under any bidding system. It just happened they were using my three no-trump response. South decided it could be applied.

North's four-heart bid showed two aces and South's bid of four spades asked for kings and also guaranteed that he had two aces himself.

NORTH'S seven-diamond bid was thoroughly sound. South was trying for a grand

The art of living is important, but sometimes it seems to me that it is an art just to stay alive; and you need a big hunk of luck. Remember all the things you did as a child and as a teenager?

How anyone ever gets from childhood to teen-age and then from teen-age to maturity in one piece is a miracle. However, a lot of us made it! Of course, the medical profession had a lot to do with it. Most of the dread disease of childhood and the scourges to the human race have been conquered.

Now the big guns of medical research are burning into the chronic diseases of middle age and later years.

'How to Buy Meat' Guide

How much meat should you buy?

The Consumer Market Information Service of the University of California makes these suggestions:

Just count noses when choosing such meats as chops or franks.

When buying boneless meat—round steak, cutlets, liver, stew meats, ground 1/4 pounds per serving.

For meat with an average amount of bone—bone-in roasts, steaks, ham—plan on 1/2 to 1/3 pound per serving. And when you select meat with a larger amount of bone—short ribs, spareribs, hocks—buy 3/4 to 1 pound per serving.

Gift of Life Is Precious, Take the Time to Enjoy It

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Before long they will know how to prevent heart and vascular diseases, arthritis and cancer, and will know more about the ever expanding role of nutrition.

Now that we "made it" what are we doing with this lovely bonus of being alive? A lot of folks are tied up in knots of tension, with plenty of time to worry, but no time to relax or to savor daily life.

THEY SEEM to forget that the absolutely greatest blessing of all is to be alive, to be able to think and feel and do. Sometimes it may be uncomfortable, and even painful, but it is always worthwhile.

In order to get the most of living we must set aside some time for relaxation and spend as little time as possible in worry. The latter saps our pep and leaves us exhausted. Mulling over problems completely changes one's outlook and mutes the colors of life.

Naturally we cannot just ignore problems and untenable situations. We have to face them and do something about them, if we can—but worry is completely unproductive unless it leads to action of some sort. This may be the action of changing conditions in which we live, or it may mean that we adapt to them.

MEDICINE AND YOU Suggest Treatment for Skin Disease

By BEN ZINSER

A Pasadena dermatologist suggests a new treatment to clear up patches of psoriasis.

Dr. Jud R. Scholtz described the method in Archives of Dermatology.

For one minute rub the area to be treated with an abrasive substance called Brasivol (fine) to remove scales.

Apply a layer of Synalar cream one-eighth of an inch thick. (Synalar is a new hormone cream to treat inflammatory conditions.)

Cover treatment area with Saran Wrap.

Finally, cover entire dressing with waterproof adhesive—to preserve the water content of application. Replace dressing after three or four days.

Dr. Scholtz says this technique cleared completely 28 psoriatic areas on 12 different patients within 10 or 12 days.

Some redness existed at the treatment site, but this vanished within the succeeding two weeks.

Synalar is also known as fluocinolone acetonide.

PSORIASIS, among adults, is twice as likely to occur in men as in women, says Dr. Eugene M. Farber of Stanford University.

The disease is most likely to appear in women before they're 19. In men it's most apt of show up before they are 26.

PIN-WORMS A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms. Ugly parasites that medical experts say infect 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it. To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P.W. tablets do... and here's how they do it: First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐

1. MOST MARITAL CONFLICTS ARE ABOUT SEX!

2. WHERE DO TEENS GET ALL THEIR MONEY? PARENTS ☐ WORK ☐

3. GIFTED CHILDREN TURN OUT BADLY! TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐

By SYLVANUS AND EVELYN DUVALL

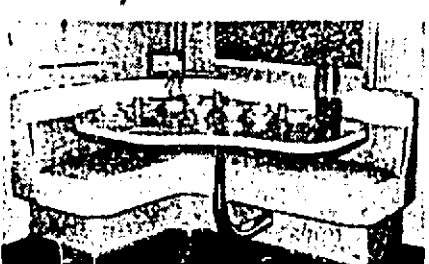

1. Most marital conflicts are about sex!

False. A study of 731 marriages, for example, revealed that money is the major source of disagreement, way ahead of anything else. Then came recreation, children and personality clashes, in that order. Sex was the least important of anything mentioned. Money arguments usually centered around the "extravagance" of the other partner, or what piece of expensive equipment the family should buy next.

2. Where do teens get all their money?

Eugene Gilbert estimates that high school boys and girls have four times as much money to spend now as their counterparts did in 1945. The individual average now is $10 a week compared with $2.50 15 years ago. Where does it come from? Two-thirds from parents as gifts and allowances, and the rest they earn themselves at all sorts of jobs from baby-sitting and clerking in stores for girls to carrying papers and working evening shifts and weekends at the local garage for the boys. Today's teen-agers need money, and they are willing to work to get it, even when it hurts their academic standing.

Dear Abby

A Hitch in His Future

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a sailor in the U.S. Navy. Recently I made plans to marry a 16-year-old girl from my home town. In order to get enough money to get married on, I reenlisted in the Navy for six years. I got a $400 bonus.

When I went home to get married, my girl's father ran me out of the house and refused to let his daughter marry me. She's not old enough to marry without his consent. Now I'm in the Navy for six more years and can't get out. What should I do?—FLEET POST OFFICE.

DEAR FLEET: It looks like you're stuck with a six-year hitch and $400. Make the best of it, Mac, and see the world.

DEAR ABBY: My husband died suddenly last November. At a Christmas party I renewed acquaintance with a man I had known for many years. On New Year's Eve he asked me to marry him. My teen-aged daughter became very upset when I told her, and said that out of respect to her father I should wait at least one year. When I told this man I wanted to wait, he cooled off and started seeing another woman in town. The talk around town is that he may marry her. I think I passed up a good thing and would like to have another chance with this man. How can I revive his interest without having it look like I am chasing him? Should I find an excuse to call him?—MISSED MY CHANCE.

DEAR MISSED: Unless you can get word to him via a friend in a very subtle way, I am afraid you are out of luck. Don't call him, P.S. Your daughter may have done you a favor. The "love" your renewed acquaintance had for you was not very deeply rooted.

DEAR ABBY: My father is going to kill me when he sees my report card. I got A's and B's in everything except Citizenship, and I got a D in that. This isn't the first time I have been kept off the honor roll for Citizenship. When I asked my teacher exactly what "Citizenship" meant, she said she didn't like my "attitude." Now what does that mean? I don't think it's fair. What should I do?—PICKED ON.

DEAR PICKED ON: A good citizen does his share to get along with others. Evidently you don't. Your attitude is not what you do, but the way you go about doing it. Have a talk with your teacher and ask her how you can improve on that score.

Still worrying about the same old problem? Write to Abby for a personal reply. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, Box 3365 Beverly Hills, Calif.

Pope Says Church In Need of Priests

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John XIII Tuesday called for more priestly vocations and said the scarcity of Catholic clergymen in Latin America and other parts of the world was a source of "dismay."

The 80-year-old pontiff closed the fourth session of the Central Preparatory Commission for the Ecumenical Council with a Latin language address on the problem of vocations, which he said was "basic for the future of the Holy Church."

INTRODUCING THE BIG

DODGE CUSTOM 880

NEW FROM DODGE!!

CUSTOM-MADE FOR THE BIG CAR MAN. The new Dodge Custom 880 is a big automobile. No pretense. No half-measures. It offers the comfort and sense of well-being that only a large car can give you. It has been made for one reason. To satisfy, without compromise, the needs and demands of the big car man.

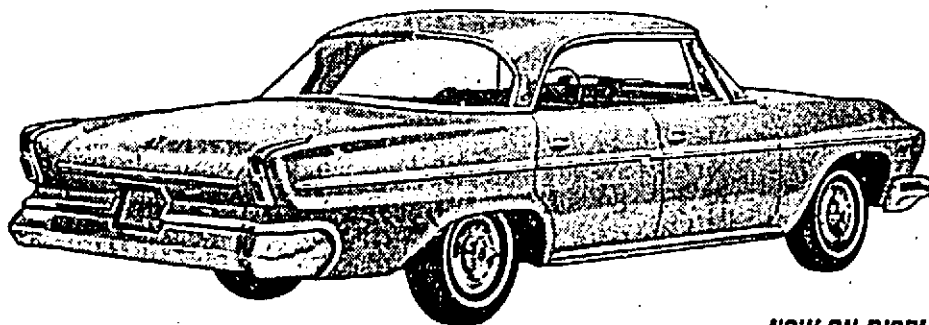

As we have stated, the new Dodge Custom 880 is big. Wheelbase is 122 inches. Overall length almost 18 feet. There's an abundance of room for six adults. The trunk is 33 cubic feet. Mammoth by any standards.

The Custom 880 is powered by a 351 cubic inch V8 which will develop 265 horsepower. It is very hot. It is also satisfyingly economical. This same engine got 20.0 miles to the gallon when it won its class in last year's Mobilgas Economy Run.

The car handles beautifully. Its long wheelbase and perfectly balanced Torsion-Bar suspension system provide a stable, smooth ride. The body, of course, is rustproofed. The brakes are extremely large, as you should expect in a car of its size. And you can drive thirty-two thousand miles between grease jobs.

The new Dodge Custom 880 is now on display at your dependable Dodge Dealer's. The model pictured is a four-door hardtop. Other models include a four-door sedan, a two-door hardtop, six- or nine-passenger wagons, and a convertible. All custom-made for the big car man.

[Another Public Service Venture By Rainier Ale]

COACH STAHL WANTS YOU TO WALK TO SEATTLE!

Yes, this is your chance to win a free trip to the Century 21 World's Fair! And the beauty of it is you will be able to enjoy the great outdoors every step of the 1000 miles from the Opera House in San Francisco to Seattle and the Space Needle. What finer way to reassure man that he will still be able to fill his lungs with fresh air amidst the marvels of the 21st Century?

However, man does not live by breath alone. In line with Rainier Ale's policy of combining the cultural with the vigorously masculine, you will, of course, be wearing one of our Beethoven, Bach, or Brahms Sweatshirts* as the glorious miles trudge by. Expenses en route will be paid; you will be fully equipped from sweatshirt to shoes. On arrival at the Fair each of you will receive a crisp $1000 bill from an official (at the very least) of the Seattle Fair in recognition of your services to music.

All this if you can qualify as one of the three man team to leave San Francisco the day the fair opens, April 21, 1962, and arrive whenever you get there. Applicants must be between 21 and 65 and have about three months to spare so they won't have to hurry; this is no race. Coach Stahl, pictured above, is against walking for any reasons except pleasure and physical improvement. He moreover feels that this project, in line as it is with the President's fitness program, would be self-defeating if the walkers arrived too pooped to have a nice time at the Fair.

We are fortunate indeed in having John F. (Old Iron Legs) Stahl, Rainier Ale's Athletic Director, as mentor of our squad. Coach Stahl, the dean of American walkers, has already made the arduous trip himself in a "dry run" (a figure of speech, since he gratifyingly believes Our Product to be an adornment to the training table). Mr. Stahl, 79—he intends to spend his 80th birthday on the road to the Fair—has made walking his career since being retired from the Postoffice for physical disability in 1935. He has covered 17,832 miles the hard way during the last 27 years. His walking feats on three continents include a 3,000 miler from the Canal Zone to Austin, Texas and from Fatima, Portugal, via Lourdes, to Rome. He has received many honors in recognition of his prowess, viz., he is a Papal Knight of St. Gregory and an Honorary Texas Ranger. He credits his longevity and excellent physique to walking and is anxious to inculcate an appreciation of its pleasures in young people. "The Twist is no substitute," says he, "the action is faulty."

Of the Seattle Walk Coach Stahl says "Hitch-hikers need not apply; we do not need their sort." Those of you who are interested in joining him at the San Francisco training camp should have your applications in no later than April 9th. Write: Mr. John F. Stahl, c/o Rainier Ale, Seattle, Washington. Coach Stahl will require the data customary in affairs of this sort—age, occupation, photograph, shoe size, previous experience in long distance walking, if any; and, without seeming to pry, a report on the general condition of your health. In a pinch he would be willing to accept your say-so in this area, however a report from your personal physician would be preferable. We like to acknowledge the primacy of the medical profession in corporal matters whenever we can. It only seems fair. Oh, one other thing: men only. Happy Walking!

*You may still buy one—and we now have Mozart, too—by sending $4.00 to: Sweatshirts, Rainier Ale, Box B3134L, Seattle 14, Washington. Specify composer and size; either Male or Female.

Since you are making the trip anyway perhaps you won't mind doing a service for us, too: return a Rainier Ale empty to the brewery; a purely symbolic gesture to remind you who put up the $1000.

Rainier Ale itself is for men only, or so we like to think. It has a strong male flavor and a strong male color. Therefore it should not be swilled down, but drunk with the same respect as a highball. Our Product is now available on the West Coast only, but soon N. Y., and after that who knows?

Glenn's Sober Warning to an Elated Country

IN THE WAKE OF the hero's reception accorded him in the nation's capital, Astronaut John Glenn Jr. yesterday appeared before the House Space Committee and voiced a warning to a buoyant nation flush with victory.

IT WAS A WARNING that can prevent the letdown and disillusionment that tend to occur when failure follows brilliant beginnings.

"We don't envision every flight coming back as successfully as the three so far," he said in a sober moment.

"There will be failures. There will be sacrifices.

"I hope we will all continue to have the same confidence in the program that we have now, despite the fact there will be times when we are not riding such a crest of happiness and success as we are right now."

It's easy at this moment, Glenn is telling Americans, to have confidence and optimism. But let them prepare themselves psychologically to ride out bad times and resist the temptation to turn tail when things get rough.

The possibility that flights will fail and lives will be lost was clearly illustrated by a development during Glenn's own successful orbiting of the earth.

For two hours of the flight, officials of Project Mercury faced an emergency fraught with potential disaster. This emergency was created by a signal (later proved to be in error) indicating that a latch holding the fiberglass heat shield had come unfastened. This could have meant the disintegration of the capsule and the incineration of its occupant upon re-entry into the atmosphere.

As the whole world knows, this did not occur, and the United States scored a triumph in the space race. But the possibility of disaster from one cause or another had been constantly present.

AMERICAN POLICY IS TO 'do everything possible to make these exploratory flights as safe as possible for the men who go on them. But there will always be an element of risk in pioneering, even in the age of science.

Let Congress and the American public maintain faith equal to that of the courageous men who are risking their very lives in these flights.

DREW PEARSON

General Jokes--No Mileage Pay for Glenn's Orbit Trip

WASHINGTON — Gen. David Shoup, the Marine Corps commander, has replied to Col. John Glenn's mischievous request for flight pay for three orbits around the earth that he would approve a voucher for the four and a half hours Glenn spent in orbit but would not approve any payment figured by the mile. . . . JFK doesn't forget little things, even at times of crisis. It was he who instructed Vice President Johnson, chairman of the space agency, to fly to Grand Turk Island to greet Colonel Glenn. . . . Colonel Glenn hasn't formally applied, but has hinted he would like to make a second trip into space; James Webb, head of the Space Agency, has made no final decision but feels Glenn has done enough, will probably keep him down on Earth in the future. . . . Webb, who masterminded the great space achievement, was trained under the late great governor of North Carolina, O. Max Gardner. . . . It took spectators at Cape Canaveral longer to drive through the traffic jam to Coco Beach than it took John Glenn to travel all the way round the Earth. . . . Two secret documents on space flights have disappeared from the Armed Services Technical Intelligence Agency. Security men are frantically searching for them, but some agents believe the documents were hidden by a disgruntled employee to embarrass his boss. They pertained to guidance problems.

PEARSON

hind the sugar cane curtain in Cuba. U. S. Intelligence reports that they are closely linked to the ideological battle between China and Russia.

Among other things, Fidel Castro has now abdicated much of his dictatorial power and has promised the Russians to quit his psychopathic bombast which has kept Cuba in a continual state of jitters.

Behind the internal struggle have been two important figures. The first is Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Argentine-trained communist, who favored the tough Chinese brand of communism and imported hundreds of Chinese technicians. Chinese have been seen all over Havana and probably outnumbered Russian advisers. Some even held office in the Cuban government.

Opposing Guevara has been Blas Roca, a communist loyal to Moscow.

IN THE IDEOLOGICAL infighting which has taken place in the Spanish-built fortresses and office buildings of ancient Havana, Roca has now won out. He has become backstage boss of Cuba.

He has even replaced Castro as head of agrarian reform with a trusted henchman, Carlos Rodriguez. Guevara has been eased out of the limelight, and his Chinese friends are being dropped.

The Cuban government now appears to be run from the Russian embassy where Ambassador Sergei Kudryavtsev quietly gives advice.

Blas Roca, according to intelligence reports, played two aces in forcing Castro to relinquish his dictatorial powers:

1. Castro's mismanagement has driven Cuba to the brink of economic disaster, and he desperately needed aid. Only Russia could supply that aid.

2. Castro had developed a paranoid fear of invasion from the U.S.A. and assassination at the hands of American agents. The Kremlin promised to protect him. This was the reason Moscow issued its recent warning against another Cuban invasion. The warning was more to reassure Castro than to frighten the U.S.A.

Result of this dramatic upheaval inside Cuba will be more stability and less anti-Americanism. The Russians have always figured Cuba was a good bargaining weapon with the United States, but never have been fond of Castro. Khrushchev deliberately snubbed Castro's repeated invitation to visit him in Havana when Khrushchev came to the U.N. for his prolonged New York visit in the fall of 1960.

STRICTLY PERSONAL

My Skepticism, Your Suspicion

By SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Antics with Semantics:
I am skeptical; you are suspicious; he is mistrustful.
I am selective; you are stuffy; he is clannish.
When we hear a risqué story, I chuckle appreciatively, while you smirk and he drools.

According to the police, the man was "detained for questioning"; according to his lawyer, the man was "taken into custody"; according to the man himself, he was "thrown into the clink."

Your report to the committee was "tedious and full of trivial details," but my report to the committee was thorough and definitive.

As an executive, I like to have the reins in my hands; but as an executive, your trouble is that you don't know how to delegate authority.

My presentation was judicious; yours was vague; his was filled with double talk.

I AM DECENTLY reticent; you are self-effacing; he is afraid of his own shadow.

I administer a family trust, whereas you live off your ancestors.

I am sensitive; you are emotional; he is hysterical.

I have a few influential connections; you are a bit of a wire-puller; he is a fixer.

I am full-blooded; you are a little lecherous; he is an indiscriminate chaser.

I'M GETTING a trifle thick around the middle; you are developing a pot; he has become grossly fat.

I don't like to shilly-shally; you're rather quick on the trigger; he is rash and irritable.

My forbears were workers of the soil, but yours were ignorant peasants.

I give my subordinates a bit of advice for their own good; you give warnings; he makes threats.

MY CHILD ENGAGED in a harmless escapade; your child took part in a mischievous prank; his child is the leader of a gang of delinquents.

I sincerely believe that "too much prosperity" as a nation makes us flabby and lazy and decreases our initiative—but I personally have not reached, nor ever expect to reach, the point of "too much prosperity." Has anyone, in his own view?

I am tender-hearted; you are sentimental; he is soft-headed.

Town Meeting

Dooley Facts on Projects Disputed

I note that Charlie Dooley is at it again—opposing any projects that are not for his personal benefit. His opposition to the new City Hall and other projects is typical of the philosophy that he demonstrated as a councilman. The fact that he was soundly defeated in his bid for re-election in 1960 certainly indicates that the people are not to be taken in by his wild statements.

His letter of last week shows that he has little regard for the facts. He states, for instance, that the Public Utilities building is "half empty and available for future expansion by the City." A five-minute tour of the building would refute this statement—there isn't a vacant room in the whole structure.

THERE IS nothing inconsistent as to the Water Department locating its administration building on Wardlow Rd. All of the commercial operations (on-and-off orders, billing, payments, etc.) are still handled downtown in conjunction with the Gas Department. In short, those activities having the most public contact are conducted where they are the most convenient to the greatest number of people. Those departments which have operations "in the field" are located at various sites throughout the city. No one would suggest that the public service yards be located in the central business district. However, this is the logical location for departments which have the most public contact. This concept has been proven in all major cities in the nation.

I will place my faith in our responsible civic leaders and the experience of other cities — and not in the wild imaginings of Mr. Dooley.

Wants Peace but Not Red Brand

Mrs. Nina Khrushchev, in her recent radio broadcast, was the keynote speaker for a massive "peace" front which will soon be very active in selling Americans on the idea of disarmament. This is a trap to ensnare the gullible. We all long for peace but not the Russian brand which insists on our surrender to Communist slavery.

Dimitri Z. Manuilsky—Soviet representative to the United Nations in 1949 and head of its Security Council—officially set for the Communist strategy for victory: "War to the hilt between communism and capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. . . . To win we shall need the element of surprise. The bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movements on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fist!"

When Government Gives

WHEN GOVERNMENT gives, government controls.

Recognition of that truth came like a cry from the wilderness last week. We wonder how many ears heard the cry.

The State Board of Social Welfare of New York complained:

"We believe that a stand must be made now by this state and, hopefully, every other state to stop and to reverse the trend of federal domination of a growing complexity that is getting completely out of hand and of the constant threats to withhold federal funds because of alleged nonconformity with federal regulations."

New York gets $200,000,000 a year from the federal government to help administer the state's welfare programs.

The government's participation, complains the board, involves the state in a "bureaucratic network of federal regulations, reporting, auditing, bulletins, state letters, interpretations, conformity reviews, and a snowstorm of other administrative paper requirements."

Furthermore, the board sees danger of even broader federal interference in new welfare proposals before Congress.

We agree these are frightening conditions. But we are at a loss to suggest how New York might combat them—other, that is, then by refusing the $200,000,000.

WASHINGTON — Gen. David Shoup, the Marine Corps commander, has replied to Col. John Glenn's mischievous request for flight pay for three orbits around the earth that he would approve a voucher for the four and a half hours Glenn spent in orbit but would not approve any payment figured by the mile. . . . JFK doesn't forget little things, even at times of crisis. It was he who instructed Vice President Johnson, chairman of the space agency, to fly to Grand Turk Island to greet Colonel Glenn. . . . Colonel Glenn hasn't formally applied, but has hinted he would like to make a second trip into space; James Webb, head of the Space Agency, has made no final decision but feels Glenn has done enough, will probably keep him down on Earth in the future. . . . Webb, who masterminded the great space achievement, was trained under the late great governor of North Carolina, O. Max Gardner. . . . It took spectators at Cape Canaveral longer to drive through the traffic jam to Coco Beach than it took John Glenn to travel all the way round the Earth. . . . Two secret documents on space flights have disappeared from the Armed Services Technical Intelligence Agency. Security men are frantically searching for them, but some agents believe the documents were hidden by a disgruntled employee to embarrass his boss. They pertained to guidance problems.

PEARSON

hind the sugar cane curtain in Cuba. U. S. Intelligence reports that they are closely linked to the ideological battle between China and Russia.

Among other things, Fidel Castro has now abdicated much of his dictatorial power and has promised the Russians to quit his psychopathic bombast which has kept Cuba in a continual state of jitters.

Behind the internal struggle have been two important figures. The first is Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Argentine-trained communist, who favored the tough Chinese brand of communism and imported hundreds of Chinese technicians. Chinese have been seen all over Havana and probably outnumbered Russian advisers. Some even held office in the Cuban government.

Opposing Guevara has been Blas Roca, a communist loyal to Moscow.

IN THE IDEOLOGICAL infighting which has taken place in the Spanish-built fortresses and office buildings of ancient Havana, Roca has now won out. He has become backstage boss of Cuba.

He has even replaced Castro as head of agrarian reform with a trusted henchman, Carlos Rodriguez. Guevara has been eased out of the limelight, and his Chinese friends are being dropped.

The Cuban government now appears to be run from the Russian embassy where Ambassador Sergei Kudryavtsev quietly gives advice.

Blas Roca, according to intelligence reports, played two aces in forcing Castro to relinquish his dictatorial powers:

1. Castro's mismanagement has driven Cuba to the brink of economic disaster, and he desperately needed aid. Only Russia could supply that aid.

2. Castro had developed a paranoid fear of invasion from the U.S.A. and assassination at the hands of American agents. The Kremlin promised to protect him. This was the reason Moscow issued its recent warning against another Cuban invasion. The warning was more to reassure Castro than to frighten the U.S.A.

Result of this dramatic upheaval inside Cuba will be more stability and less anti-Americanism. The Russians have always figured Cuba was a good bargaining weapon with the United States, but never have been fond of Castro. Khrushchev deliberately snubbed Castro's repeated invitation to visit him in Havana when Khrushchev came to the U.N. for his prolonged New York visit in the fall of 1960.

Plowing a Rural District May Reap Liberal Sheaves

AT LEAST one candidate for the East Long Beach-Signal Hill Assembly seat being vacated by Bill Grant has put at the top of his campaign issues "reapportionment of the State Senate."

This seems significant as a fresh bugle in the urban-rural reeve. It becomes more apparent that the political dialogue of the near future may divide along this city-country line. Perhaps even to replace, or at least complement, the left vs. right debate.

Southern California attention to the matter is not new, of course. Supervisor Bonelli's remedy of a 20-20 State Senate lost in 1960 statewide voting, 3.4 million to 1.8 million. But timing and method, rather than the principle, may have caused the defeat.

Coincident with the new local mention of the disparity in city and rural representation is a Tennessee reference. The Insiders Newsletter reports that Tennessee's urban voters have filed a Supreme Court suit against the state for reapportioning the State Legislature so that districts have more voters jammed into them, thus giving better legislative representation to rural districts.

ALTHOUGH local level legislators and candidates treat the urban-rural issue in bipartisan terms now, it may suddenly burst into a first-class intrigue to pack the national legislature with liberals.

As the Insider points out, a ruling to give city dwellers "fair" representation in state legislatures would lead to the same thing in federal congressional districts, because the state lawmakers draw the congressional district lines.

President Kennedy's congressional advisers have taken secret surveys, says the Insider, and come to the determination that 203 congressmen are liberals (regardless of party affiliation) and 200 are conservatives, so that any bill depends on 25 to 35 swing votes.

SINCE STUDIES show that a fair reapportionment of congressional districts would shift at least 30 from rural to urban areas, and probably replace that many congressional conservatives with those on the liberal side, the swing vote would thus be captured for liberal measures.

If this reckoning is valid, conservatives may find themselves taking second thoughts about whether to stump for more equitable representation for their city constituencies.

THERE ARE examples at hand of California cow-country legislators doing valiant work for city causes. City conservatives apparently will have to make a nice decision about how to treat and nurture their conservative counterparts in the tules.

QUOTES

By United Press International

WASHINGTON — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., warning congressmen they must not lose faith although some future space flights may fail with loss of life:

"We don't envision every flight coming back as successfully as the three so far. There will be failures. There will be sacrifices."

WASHINGTON — White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, reporting the national space agency has been asked to recommend a proper program of appearances for spaceman John H. Glenn:

"A number of places are under consideration. NASA is trying to draw up an orderly program out of all these invitations."

SIDEWALK SEATE

WHO IS THE MOST ORDERLY AROUND THE HOUSE—A MAN OR A WOMAN?

Asked at Sixth Street and Pine Avenue.)

Lorraine Higgins, Lander, Wyo., homemaker: I think it's half and half, according to which one is in a hurry at the moment.

Cecelia Dale, 457 W. Fourth St., homemaker: I think both are orderly.

Sue Judd, Grandby, Mo., beautician: The woman. She can pick up after herself. But a man can't—definitely.

Carolyn Judd, 1234 E. Third St., homemaker: A lady is much neater around the house. Women are neater than men.

Charles Kreidt, 1208 Linden Ave., retired janitor: Usually women pick up, do the cooking, etc. But sometimes men do. That's my experience.

Oscar Koch, 27 W. 14th St., retired steelworker: I'm single, so I'm the boss at my house. A man doesn't pick up anything.

SICK?

STOMACH TROUBLE

I can highly recommend Dr. Chan's Herbs for Stomach Trouble. After a period of time I suffered with gastritis, nervous stomach, heartburn, gas, bloating and pain. Although I tried every treatment and remedy and had spent hundreds of dollars, my condition was not at all improved. After taking Dr. Chan's Herbs for 2 weeks I must say that I feel very well. My ailments are completely gone and by health restored.

ASTHMA

My 3 children were all suffering from asthma while I was trying one thing after another, shots and pills from doctors failed to help. I finally tried Dr. Chan's method and they all improved after just a short time. Now they are completely well and can eat everything. I highly recommend his treatment to asthma sufferers as the very best method. I know it is because I tried everything else first.

405-HP THUNDERBIRD V-8—Thirty years of Ford experience culminate in this startling V-8. Available in every Galaxie, it puts 405 horses under the throttle, a dazzling level of acceleration that cannot be imagined but must be felt. A super-performance option, it comes only with the four-speed gear box. But, unlike some "special" engines that require delicate tuning and modification, it puts out its potential right off the showroom floor. Even more impressive, Ford skill has made it a docile tiger; it idles smoothly, it is durable, its super capacity does not come at the expense of harshness and noise. Among expert drivers, it is praised as a true high-performance V-8... pacesetter for 9 others tailored to every driving need.

NEW FAIRLANE CHALLENGER "260" V-8—When the 221-cubic-inch Fairlane V-8 appeared last fall, automotive writers hailed it as a great basic advance, a compact jewel of design. Now, the "260" V-8 proves their prediction. With 164 hp, 19 more than the standard version, Fairlane gains a new brilliance of performance—but it still runs on "regular," still out-saves any standard-size Six. It has the durability of time-tested cast iron, lightened by Ford's precision-casting technique. Created by the one maker who has built 30,000,000 V-8's since 1932, it brings the sparkle and smoothness of V-8 power well within the thrifty budget's reach, puts truly sophisticated engineering at the service of truly economical motoring.

Home-O-Rama All Set for Opening in L.B.

"Informative and entertaining" are the words used by Phil Wiedrick to describe the Home-O-Rama which opens today under auspices of the Long Beach Builders' Exchange.

Wiedrick, chairman of the annual home show, said: "Those are the two words we kept in mind when we were planning the 1962 Home-O-Rama. First of all, we want the public informed on what is available for their home and on the progress the building industry is making on all fronts."

"Secondly, we want visitors to our show to have fun and be entertained. That's one way the Long Beach Builders' Exchange can show its appreciation of the wonderful community in which we live and work."

HUNDREDS OF booths, manned by helpful experts in many lines will be set up in the Auditorium to give the public a first-hand look at the latest products for the home, ranging from building materials to furnishings and appliances.

"Showcase Home" will be an outstanding example of how color, furnishings and materials can be blended," the chairman said.

Entertainment will be provided by "The Travelers Three," an outstanding trio which will present folk songs on stage twice each week night and four times each on the weekend.

AN OPENING night highlight will be selection of a Home-O-Rama queen and two princesses from nine Long Beach girls who are competing for the title. Selection of the queen and her coronation will take place on stage.

Valuable prizes in the form of children's playhouses and a wishing well will be given away during the show, Wiedrick said. Adults may qualify to win the playhouses by registering. They need not be present to win.

The Home-O-Rama will open at 5 p.m. Wednesday in Municipal Auditorium and close at 11 p.m. as it will on subsequent week nights. On Saturday and Sunday the show will be open from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Knows Role HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—David Niven, who gave up a career as a professional soldier to become an actor, has played a soldier in almost 20 percent of his 65 films. He portrays a major in his latest picture, "The Best of Enemies."

Victory Bell OCALA, Fla. (UPI)—A 700-pound ship's bell from the U.S.S. Kentucky is tolled at Ocala Stud Farm every time a horse bred there wins a stake race.

WISHING WELL PRIZE AT SHOW

This handsome wishing well will be among prizes to be given away during the Home-O-Rama. Queen contestants shown are (from left) Jo Ann Fiske, Barbara Fiske and Pat Ballard.

Now Your Patio Can Assume Individuality Via Furnishings

By KAY SEE
Patio—once limited to a stereotyped sameness—can now be as individual as home interiors. The new patio furnishings on display in the Los Angeles Home Furnishings Mart offer a wide variety which will enable homeowners to decorate outdoor areas to suit their own personalities and tastes.

The new patio furniture collections include not only the conventional simple styles, but Oriental—traditional types—even Early American. Equally varied are the materials which the patio furniture producers have chosen for their new lines.

THE NEW "TAMiami" collection (by Brown-Jordan) features a subdued Oriental flavor. Constructed of welded tubular aluminum with the innovation of diagonal vinyl lacing, this line is simple and distinctive as well as durable (it features extra-sturdy double legs). A complete line of tables, seating and lounging pieces (including a rocker) is offered in this group.

Traditional elegance combined with the practicality of contemporary Californian styling is shown in the "Acapulco" wrought iron dinette designed by Jerry Johnson (for Landes Mfg.) for outdoor or indoor use. Available in metallic shades of gold, lavender, or tan wrought iron, the set has a 40-inch "molded-marble" table top and four vinyl-covered box construction chairs. Table tops and upholstery are in colors coordinated with the wrought iron bases.

FANS OF EARLY American may now indulge their preference in the patio, utilizing the "Hyannis" line of redwood furniture in the Early American mood (by Sequoia). Plaid coverings lend a gay accent to the redwood.

Also contributing to the current versatility in patio decor is a planter line on display in the Mart (by Peter Pepper). Available in a wide color range, as well as walnut,

(these planters are designed to enable the homeowner to enclose a plant in its standard five-gallon can, just as it comes from the nursery.)

PRODUCER
George Colours is producer-manager of the Home-O-Rama. He has wide experience in the home show field.

PAINT EXHIBIT

Carl Darrell, owner of Long Beach Paint Co., explains part of exhibit his firm will have in Home-O-Rama to Pat Ballard, a queen contestant. Firm will introduce a color kit through which paint may be matched to any material in a home.

See for yourself... "WHAT'S NEW IN '62" for the Home Owner. VISIT the unique "SHOWCASE HOUSE", a completely furnished 5-room home built inside of the Exhibit Hall on the first floor.

Nowhere else is there such a rare opportunity to get a look at tomorrow's new designs, new techniques, new products, new conveniences, and new ideas for building, remodeling, rehabilitation of homes, commercial and public buildings.

The entire complex world of the building industry spreads out before you. Builders, suppliers, equipment dealers—representing the Nation's most creative manufacturers—will be there to help you solve your building problems, answer your questions and demonstrate how their products and services add to human happiness by providing "better living through better building." If you're planning to build a new home or remodel your present one, "HOME-O-RAMA" is a MUST. Don't Miss It!

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

The Builders' Exchange of Long Beach is a non-profit organization composed of more than 200 general contractors, sub-contractors, building material dealers, painting contractors, plumbing contractors, architects and engineers, etc. — dedicated to the betterment of the building industry — and as such, is proud to sponsor the Third Annual Long Beach "HOME-O-RAMA" as a public service. It is deeply grateful to various unions affiliated with Long Beach Building Trades Council who provided all of the craft labor for the "Showcase House" and to the more than 175 exhibitors, representing all facets of the building industry, whose support and cooperation have made this home show possible.

Showcase Home on Display

An outstanding attraction of $14,000, was designed by Brox, a long-established Long Beach firm and a leader in contemporary home furnishings for many years.

At the 1962 Home-O-Rama, Long Beach Architect William A. Lockett for the Long Beach Builders Exchange, which features an exquisite blending of colors, furnishings and materials, according to Phil Weidrick, show chairman.

KEY MAN

Jack Horner, manager of the Long Beach Builders Exchange, is one of the key men who plan and stage the show each year. Horner helps co-ordinate many of the activities that begin ahead of the actual home show which is sponsored by the builders group.

"SHOWCASE HOME" features a living room, bedroom, kitchen, bath and dressing room. The kitchen was designed and installed by St. Charles Kitchens, one of the nation's outstanding makers of custom kitchens. Furnishings are by Frank Weidrick.

Newest in Stoves Will Be Displayed

The newest in electric stove cooking will be demonstrated at Home-O-Rama by Bond Stove Co., 965 E. Fourth St.

Featured will be the Americana by General Electric in one of the many new built-ins. It has ultra-hi speed "Sensi-Temp" units which adjust to fit 4, 6 or 8-inch pans, making all pots cook like automatic utensils with built-in heating units.

Bonds will have varied models of the General Electric stoves in their booth.

STOVE CONTROLS SEPARATE

Here is Hotpoint's new remote control cooking unit which will be seen at the Home-O-Rama. The controls can be mounted away from the cooking grease.

Cooking With Remote Control to Be Displayed by Hotpoint

You'll see the new Hotpoint remote control cooking unit which will be seen at the Home-O-Rama. The controls can be mounted away from the cooking grease.

This is the modern concept in a built-in cooking unit. The cooking surface itself may be installed in the counter top while the controls can be mounted beside the unit on the wall or wherever you wish. There will be no more splatter on the controls and no more knobs to clean around because the entire control unit can be mounted where they are out of the way of cooking grease and spill overs.

ANOTHER GAIN in this type of installation is a completely flush cooking area with no knobs or buttons protruding in your way. Hotpoint manufactures two such units and they are available in all the standard built-in colors. These units will be on display with the full line of Hotpoint built-ins at this year's Home-O-Rama. Hotpoint will display up-to-the-minute appliance fashions in built-in ovens, dishwashers and the new Town and Country range series.

TV Actor Is Artist

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of the truly versatile personalities of show business is Fred Gwynne, the tall, angular actor who plays Officer Muldoon as co-star of the NBC television series "Car 54

—Where Are You?" Besides being an accomplished actor whose work has been seen on the Broadway stage as well as television, Gwynne is an artist who has illustrated many books. His latest illustrations, distinctive and satirical, are for the new book "The Battle of the Frogs and the Mice," scheduled for Feb. 26 publication by Dodd, Mead & Co.

The book, authored by George Martin, tells in words and pictures a Homeric epic of a disastrous war between frogs and mice. The tale, originally credited to Homer but now thought to have been the work of a later author, mirrors, through lampoon, the folly of wars of all times.

Seminary Reaches 125th Birthday
NEW YORK (UPI)—Union Theological Seminary observed the 125th anniversary of its founding recently with a special convocation after a religious service. Representatives of 25 theological seminaries were represented at the ceremonies. On the opening day of the world-famous school in 1836, 13 men appeared at the home of the president of the Seminary and were enrolled as students. The present student body numbers 600.

BUILDERS' CHIEF

Paul F. McKenzie Jr. is president of the Long Beach Builders Exchange which sponsors the annual Home-O-Rama. McKenzie was chairman of last year's show.

Rain Regulates Fuel Oil Sales

NEW YORK (UPI)—Rain can be a big factor in the international oil business. Last summer, Japan had more rain than usual; result, high hydroelectric power production and a low demand for heavy fuel oil. Italy, on the other hand, had drought and not enough rain for power dams and had to import more oil than usual.

Unions Join on Showcase Home

Co-operation of 12 member groups of the Long Beach Building and Construction Trades Council was a major factor in the construction of "Showcase Home" for the Long Beach Home-O-Rama, according to Phil Wiedrick, chairman.

The home, constructed on the lower floor of the auditorium, will be a feature of the Home-O-Rama which will run from Feb. 28 through March 4—under sponsorship of the Long Beach Builders Exchange.

Wayne Hull, secretary and business manager of the Trades Council, said labor for the home was supplied by the following locals:

Carpenters No. 710, Cement

PHIL WIEDRICK
Chairman of Home Show

No. 791, Bricklayers No. 13, Electricians No. 11, Laborers No. 507, Lathers No. 172, Plasterers No. 343, Plumbers No. 494, Roofers No. 72, Teamsters No. 692, Painters No. 256 and Terrazzo setters.

Roadside Dining Is Big Business

NEW YORK (UPI)—About one-third of all the money spent by Americans for "eating out" goes to roadside restaurants, according to Howard Johnson.

Business by the side-of-the-road is reported to be the fastest growing trade in the country, with volume running to an estimated $6 billion annually.

FOLK SINGERS

"The Travelers Three" will entertain Home-O-Rama crowds with folk songs during the five-day show. The group will appear twice each week night and four times each on Saturday and Sunday.

Singing Trio Among Show Entertainers

"The Travelers Three," an outstanding trio of singers will entertain Home-O-Rama crowds with folk songs, according to Phil Wiedrick, chairman.

The group will appear on stage twice each week night and four times each on Saturday and Sunday, the final days of the home show, in Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

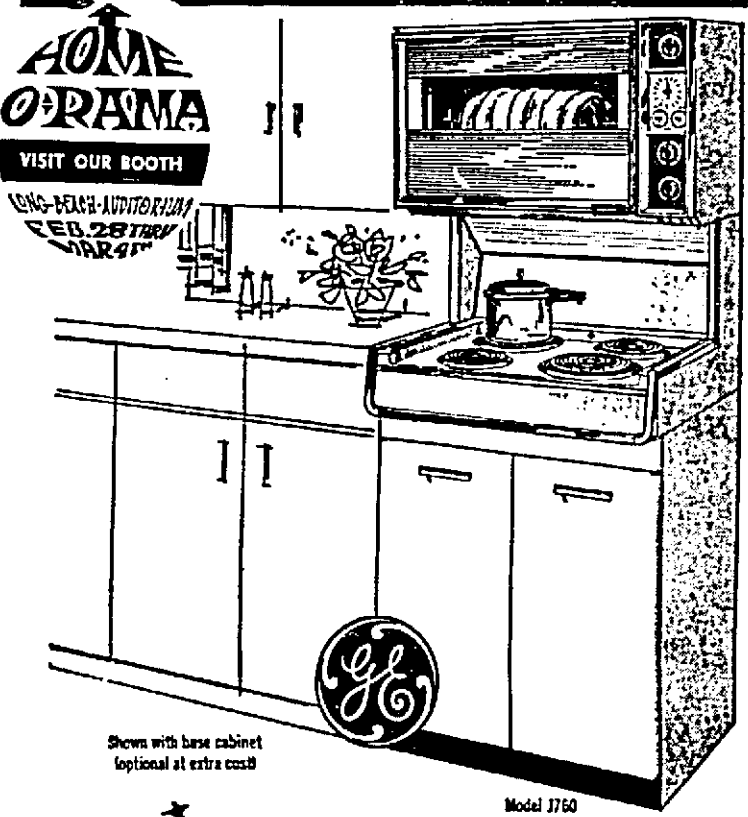

Wiedrick said the versatile group played its first professional engagement in the famous Shell Bar in Honolulu. From there they entertained audiences in some of the country's notable entertainment spots including the Blue Angel in New York, the hungry I in San Francisco, The Exodus in Denver and the Exudes Hotel in Las Vegas.

The Home-O-Rama will be open from 5 to 11 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Most U.S. Families Move in Few Years

By ANDY LANG
Associated Press Writer

When you buy a house, the chances are you expect to live in it a long time. But the records show that, on the average, a family lives only six or seven years in the same home. Now you know why there are so many new homes up for sale all the time.

What causes this constant shifting of the population into different residences? There is no one reason—not even one reason that stands out above all others. People move for a variety of reasons. The family breadwinner may get a job opportunity in another city or may find that his company either has relocated its headquarters or has transferred him to a branch office somewhere else.

THE FAMILY may have an added income that enables it to seek a more luxurious dwelling. The house may be condemned for a public improvement. The area may have become too crowded. The house may be too run-down to make remodeling practical. Or the family may have grown so over the years that there just isn't enough space.

Another contributing factor in this home-to-home movement is the tendency in recent years to move into retirement houses and areas. Old folks once were content to live out their lives wherever they were at the time of retirement. Now they want to sell the old homestead and move somewhere else. In many cases, they move hundreds or thousands of miles away in order to get the benefit of warmer climates. Some prefer retirement developments where the needs and wants of elder persons are given special attention. Others prefer to settle in areas where they can mix with younger persons.

BUT THERE no longer is the feeling of years ago that they must stay close to their children and grandchildren. Modern transportation has made it easier for families to get together on special occasions even when separated by long distances. Yet it isn't the speed of transportation alone that has generated this feeling. It's a kind of modern attitude that retired people should live where they want to live, not necessarily where their families live.

One reason why you often can get a good buy in a home that isn't new is, as we said a few paragraphs back, people expect to live a long time in houses they buy. They make changes, add landscaping and do a dozen other things to turn the house into a home. Then when they decide to move for one reason or another, the buyer gets the benefit of the improvements.

His only problem is to decide whether it is more economical for him to pay extra for a home with such improvements or to put the improvements in a house that doesn't have them.

Child's Playhouse Prize Every Night

Five children's playhouses registering during the Home-O-Rama, according to George Colours, producer-manager. Beginning Wednesday, opening night of the show, one playhouse and the wishing well will be awarded. Contributing and constructing playhouses were: Mel Masterson of Masterson Trussing Co., and general contractors Ray Warren, Tom Norcross, Guy Milburn and Paul F. McKenzie Jr.

ANY ADULT may qualify to win one of the playhouses contributed by John Fiske, or the wishing well merely by painting contractor.

QUALITY UPHOLSTERING

Visitors to the Home-O-Rama will see displays of quality custom upholstery at Bergen's Interior booth. Quality of Bergen's custom work in the Long Beach, San Pedro and newly opened Buena Park shops is shown in this picture window of the North Long Beach shop.

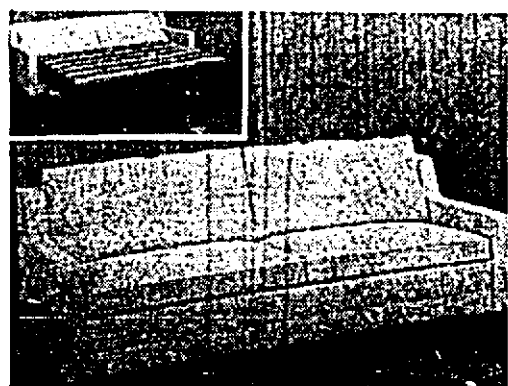

Canned Fruit Sales Increase

NEW YORK (UPI)—Canned fruit sales in the nation's supermarkets are increasing at a more rapid rate than overall store sales, the grocery edition of Chain Store Age reports.

Customer demand for canned fruit pushed the total over $421 million in 1961—a gain of 49 per cent over the last six years as compared with a gain of 42 per cent for the food chains as a whole.

Big Dreamer HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Connie Stevens, who appears on TV's "Hawaiian Eye" series, decided to become a movie star at the age of 7 and told her parents so. The actress said she didn't really believe it, "but it proves you should dream big."

HAROLD'S WILL SHOW

This beautiful tuck-away sleeper is typical of custom-constructed furniture directly at the factory at Harold's Furniture Mfg., 6640 Cherry Ave., north of Artesia Blvd. Customers can select their furniture made to their order. Harold's will have a display at Home-O-Rama.

SPARKLING DISPLAY

Glittering light fixtures will be part of Fountain Electric Co.'s display in Home-O-Rama. Showing fixture are Mr. and Mrs. George Fountain, owners of the firm.

Timely Tips

By United Press International

Use squares of blotting paper between plates to keep china from chipping.

Small woolen articles such as baby booties and gloves will dry more quickly if they are pinned to a large turkish towel and the towel is hung on the clothesline.

Fresh flowers keep longer if the leaves that are under water are removed from the stem. These leaves usually decay first and poison the water.

A screw that has been dipped into thinned shellac before being inserted into wood is not apt to rust.

A half teaspoonful of cream of tartar in the bottom of a double boiler of water will keep the water from boiling over.

Grate a bit of potato to remove cheese clinging to a grater.

Disinfect the laundry when you have illness at home. This helps to curb the spread of disease or infection. Use the laundry disinfectant according to directions on the package.

HAROLD JOHNSON
The Fall Guy

OLSEN PARTNER

Zany Comic Johnson, 70 Succumbs

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Chic Johnson, the pudgy, giggling fall guy of the great "Hellzapoppin'" comedy team of Olsen and Johnson, is dead of a kidney ailment at 70.

Johnson's death Monday night in a Las Vegas hospital ended a famed partnership that had extended almost a half century through every phase of show business—vaudeville, Broadway shows, movies, radio and TV.

Ole Olsen was the lean, wry straight-man partner.

Born Harold Johnson in Chicago, the comic met his partner when both were attending Northwestern University. They became headliners in vaudeville and continued playing movie houses after the two-a-day was dead.

After years of playing the small- and big-time, they burst on Broadway with "Hellzapoppin'" in 1939. Blase New Yorkers were at first astounded and then vastly entertained by Olsen and Johnson's violent humor.

WOMEN ran screaming through the audience. Gunshots were frequent. A man walked through the theater carrying a tree that grew larger with each appearance. At the end of the show he could be seen in a full-grown tree in the lobby, still calling for the owner of it.

"Hellzapoppin'" defied all the critics and ran 1,404 performances. It still ranks No. 11 among long-running New York shows.

Road-show versions toured the country, and Olsen and Johnson made a film version. They returned to Broadway with such shows as "Sons o' Fun" and "Laffin' Room Only." Among their other films were: "Fifty Million Frenchmen," "Crazy House," "The Ghost Catchers" and "See My Lawyer."

In recent years the team had toured night clubs and theaters but failed to achieve their "Hellzapoppin'" success.

THE JOHNSONS came here three weeks ago from their Carmel, N.Y., ranch and were living in a trailer park near the Strip.

Christian Science services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday in the Palm Mortuary here. Entombment will follow in the mortuary's mausoleum.

The widow, Catherine, met Johnson when she was a dancer in vaudeville. She worked for a time in the Olsen and Johnson act.

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—"It has been a great partnership, and we were probably the last ones left of the great vaudeville teams."

That was the sad comment here Tuesday night of Ole Olsen on the death of his partner, Chic Johnson.

Olsen has been touring Europe with his own troupe entertaining U. S. soldiers overseas.

"We've entertained three Democratic presidents in the White House—Wilson, Roosevelt and Truman," Olsen recalled. "That's pretty good for a couple of Republicans. And we entertained troops in both world wars."

Olsen said he and his partner used to say a little toast at the end of each show.

"I said to the audience, 'May you live as long as you want' and he would say 'And may you laugh as long as you live.'"

"I guess that was sort of our motto."

If your car won't start, don't use the starter in a long steady grind—or pump the accelerator. See tips 1 and 7 for the right things to do.

Long Beach Shell dealers suggest 7 things to try if your car won't start

Many times the solution to a starting problem is surprisingly simple. You don't need any mechanical ability to use these simple starting tips from Shell dealers. Only one of them calls for a tool.

Why not keep this page in your glove compartment? Someday, one of these 7 tips might save you time, aggravation and money.

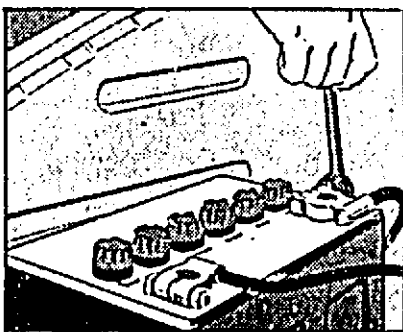

ANY TIME you have trouble getting your engine going, the first thing to do is check the obvious.

For example, the fuel gauge. It's astonishing how often an empty fuel tank is all that keeps the engine from starting.

According to American Automobile Association figures, motorists run out of fuel more than 5,000 times per day.

If you have an automatic transmission, make sure you're starting in "N" and that the selector lever is right at the letter. A fraction of an inch either way can mean the difference between starting and sitting there. NOTE: Some cars can also be started in the "P" or park position.

Next step is to run through these seven tips

from Shell dealers. Any one of them could help you get started.

1. Use the starter in short bursts. A long, steady grinding runs your battery down drastically. In fact, if the car won't start in the first few attempts, it's a good idea to wait several minutes before trying again. This lets the battery recover some of its life.

2. If you have a manual shift, keep the clutch pressed all the way down when you're trying to start. This helps to take some of the strain off the battery, particularly in cold weather.

NOTE: An engine in good mechanical condition should start in 3 or 4 seconds. Today's Super Shell gasoline can help. During coldest months, it contains an extra dose of a special quick-start ingredient.

3. Tighten battery connectors. If battery connectors are loose, you may not get full battery voltage when you try to start. With reduced voltage, the engine is harder to start. Sometimes the starter won't even turn the engine.

There's no trick to keeping the connectors tight. All you need is a suitable wrench (see picture at left). Even pliers will do.

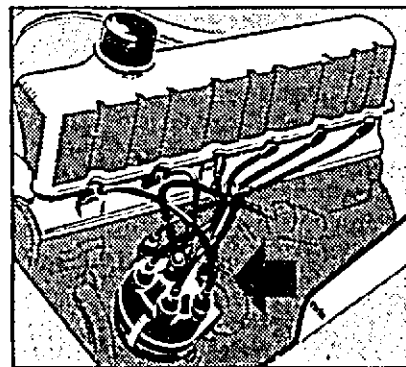

If you have repeated starting troubles, your battery may be weak. Your Shell dealer can recharge it—or install a new one if needed.

4. Get maximum value from your choke. If you have an automatic choke, give the accelerator pedal a helpful tap before you start. This sets the choke in the correct position—the way it should be for easy starting.

NOTE: A small adjustment of the automatic choke can often cure cold weather starting troubles. Your Shell dealer can take care of it for you.

If you have a manual choke, remember to use it! When you pull the choke out, you increase the proportion of fuel in the air-fuel mixture. Could be all your engine needs for a start. After you've started and warmed up, be sure to push the choke back in.

5. Wipe moisture off the distributor, ignition leads and the ceramic tops of spark plugs. Condensed moisture on these parts could keep you from getting started. And moisture can be a frequent problem in cars that are left outdoors overnight.

NOTE: The arrow in our picture (above) is pointing to the distributor. The distributor can be located in several different places, depending on the make of car you drive, but it looks the same. To find it, just follow the ignition leads—the wires that run from the spark plugs to the top of the distributor. Before you wipe the moisture away, make sure the ignition is turned off and nobody works the starter.

6. Turn off the lights, radio, heater, heater fan. This way there are no extra demands on the battery. It can devote its full power to starting the engine. Don't forget to turn lights on again when you start up.

7. Never pump the accelerator if you suspect flooding. It only makes the flooding worse. Instead, try this: Wait 2 or 3 minutes. Then press the accelerator to the floor once and hold it there while the starter cranks the engine. When the engine does start, gradually let the accelerator return to idle position.

Here are the 9 ingredients in Super Shell—and what they do to give your car top performance

- #1 is Butane for quick starts. It's so eager to get going it could boil on ice.
- #2 is Pentane mix for fast warm-ups.
- #3 is anti-knock mix to resist all kinds of knocks.
- #4 is gum preventive to help keep carburetors clean inside.
- #5 is TCP* for power, mileage, and longer plug life.
- #6 is "cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.
- #7 is an "anti-icer" (added in cold weather) to help check carburetor icing stalls.
- #8 is Alkylate to help control "high-speed knock."
- #9 is Platformate for extra mileage.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gas-line additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U. S. Patent 2,819,212.

Clock Drops, Lakers Win

Long Beach, Calif., Wed., Feb. 26, 1963

By DON HARDIN
It took Hot Rod Hundley (who else?) to cap a rather bizarre evening at the Sports Arena Tuesday as the Lakers defeated the Detroit Pistons, 107-100, before 2,978 fans and a Southland TV audience.

The game got under way 35 minutes late because the huge arena scoreboard, which hangs high from the ceiling, fell to the floor some 35 minutes before gametime. Fortunately, the players had not taken the floor for practice.

The scoreboard had to be cut loose from its mooring and hauled off the floor before the game could commence.

Then, with 24 seconds remaining in the contest, Hundley capped the eventful evening with a showboat two-pointer.

Actually, it was Hot Rod who put the Lakers in front to stay in the second quarter. And, oddly, he did so as a replacement for star Jerry West. West went to the bench with 2:00 gone in the second period. Hundley went in, scored four baskets in less than two minutes and 13 for the 10-minute span preceding intermission.

Expansion No Boon for Some Vets

NEW YORK (UPI)—Who's next?

Major league expansion has created a flock of new baseball jobs but a surprising number of older players who could have hung on during the talent shortage decided to call it quits.

Among them are pitchers Johnny Antonelli and Billy Loes, outfielder Jackie Jensen (again), infielders Ted Klusowski, Joe DeMaestri and Andy Carey and catcher Frank House.

There'll be more to come at cutoff time in the training camps as veterans facing the ax reach the time of decision—retirement, back to the minors or job-hunting with other clubs for those cut loose as free agents.

Usually, in these days of a nifty baseball pension plan, most of the older players prefer to play out the string as long as they can qualify for more pension loot.

FOR INSTANCE, 42-YEAR-OLD Dave Philley (last with Baltimore) and Ned Garver, an O-3 pitcher for the Angels, are postponing the inevitable by taking a fling with the Houston Colts this year.

Pitcher Don Newcombe, the ex-Dodger ace who lost his stuff and went to the minors, had the same thought when the New York Mets were organized but George Weiss of the Mets said, "no thanks."

So Big Newk up and quit a game that had quit on him already.

"You have to figure any player who quits with good baseball left in him has to be pretty well fixed," said an official who keeps close tabs on baseball's pension business.

That description fits Antonelli, Jensen and Klusowski for sure. All made good money from baseball and invested in money-making properties or businesses.

Antonelli, obtained by the Mets in a conditional purchase from the Milwaukee Braves, has a lucrative auto tire business and restaurant in Rochester, N. Y., and decided he wasn't interested in helping Casey Stengel launch the National League's new club in New York. When he retired, the Braves refunded the purchase price.

ANTONELLI, A $75,000 BONUS baby with the Braves in 1948, had his best competitive years for the New York and San Francisco Giants. But he didn't wear well in San Francisco and the Giants last year shipped him to Cleveland where he was 0-4 until the Braves bought him late last season.

Jensen, who has an aversion to air travel, quit the Boston Red Sox for the entire 1960 season but gave it another whirl last year and hit .263. Now he has retired again to his California business.

Klusowski, 37, was a big star with Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and the Chicago White Sox before going to Los Angeles last year with the new Angels. Klu has restaurants in Cincinnati and aims to stay around there unless some top-flight job as a pinch hitter comes along.

DeMaestri, reserve Yankee infielder, announced his retirement to stick to business—though he may have failed to notify the Yankees.

Carey, ex-Yankee and ex-Kansas City infielder, was scheduled to move to the Phillies this season, but after mulling it over decided his California brokerage business was a better prospect. Loes, ex-Giant pitcher "drafted" by the Mets, simply quit.

Gilliam Hustling Like Job Wasn't His—It Is

By GEORGE LEDERER
VERO BEACH, Fla.—"I don't care where I play, just so I play." For most ball players, the saying is as common as "fill 'er up?" to a service station attendant.

The truth is that a lot of players just don't care. Therefore, when Jim Gilliam says it, as he has for 17 years in professional ball it must be pointed out that he means only he has no preference for one position. But he does care.

At the end of a four-hour workout Tuesday, Gilliam still was running on his own. He takes care of himself and he cares for the Dodgers.

It is assumed by all but Gilliam that he will be the opening day second baseman, a position he held from 1953-57 when the Dodgers won three pennants. But Gilliam isn't taking anything for granted.

"I don't know if I'm going back there yet, but if I do, I'll be ready."

From 1958 until Charlie Neal was injured last season, Gilliam played mostly third base and some left field. He batted leadoff and he batted second. It was always Gilliam who went to the bench to make room for a rookie, but it was always Gilliam who was called back to fill the job.

Gilliam began the 1961 season as the utility man, but played in 144 games, only four fewer than Maury Wills, the leader. He played 71 games at second base and 73 at third.

GILLIAM STILL maintains that "second base is my natural position. But I've gotten used to third base and I'm beginning to like that, too."

"That's why I say I don't care where I play as long as we're in the World Series in October."

Gilliam admits that second base is the more difficult position. He points out that the second baseman must cover more ground, but feels he can do so even at age 33.

"Speed has nothing to do with it. I don't care how fast he is, a second baseman still has to 'cheat' a little. I mean he has to know where to play the hitters. He can't be in two spots at one time."

"Some say that second base is rougher physically. I can't go along with that. I've been lucky and I've never been injured. Jackie Robinson, Billy Herman and Pee Wee Reese gave me a lot of pointers."

"There are times when you can get hurt at third base, too. When fellows like Ken Boyer and Hank Aaron are up there, I'd just as soon be at second."

AFTER TUESDAY'S workout, manager Walter Alston announced the appointment of Duke Snider as Dodger captain, the first since Reese retired after the 1958 season.

"It will be good for Snider, and it will be good for the team," said Alston. Snider, in his new role, described the club's attitude as "great. It looks like they're intent on doing something this year."

Blades Bow, 7-1

CALGARY (AP)—Veterans Sid Finney and Lou Jankowski scored two goals each to lead Calgary Stampede to a one-sided 7-1 triumph over Los Angeles Blades in a Western Hockey League game before a crowd held to 2,169 by below-zero temperatures Tuesday night.

The victory propelled Calgary into a three-point lead over Seattle in the race for second place in the Northern Division. Los Angeles remained two points ahead of San Francisco in the race for third spot, the final playoff position, in the Southern Division.

Saperstein Checks L.B.

Election day blues: ... Abe Saperstein, the Harlem Globetrotter man who is Mr. Big in the baby American Basketball League, whizzed down this way a few days ago to size up L.B. and its new Arena for future franchise thoughts. He liked what he saw and I understand he offered Art Edwards, the omnipresent hockey-basketball angel, an option on the old Jet franchise. Edwards is all wrapped up in hockey, but is very eager to help any group of L.B. people get any professional franchise off the ground. Although the L.B. franchise situation is far from being cemented, anyone who might be interested in reforming the LONG BEACH Jets might contact Edwards by mail at 6274 E. Sixth St., Long Beach 14. (Don't expect a reply this week, gentlemen, Edwards is out of town for a few days.)

... The soon-to-be-completed Long Beach Arena has people buzzing throughout the Southland. The Lakers want six dates here, the Blades want dates ... and now comes the Arctic Blades Figure Skating Club, which is contemplating bidding for next year's national championships here. ... Arena manager Win Hansen is beginning to have the same problem as the New York Yankee manager: Which (or whom) to play on a given day!

... Speaking of the Yankee manager did you catch Ralph Houk's humility the other day when Florida spring training writers congratulated him on the many awards he received during the winter. "Well," sighed Houk, "everytime I get an award I imagine it makes my players feel like the horse when they put the wreath around the jockey's neck."

... And speaking of horses didja know a prominent character around this city had a $10 wager in the Caliente Future Book on Physician's nose for Saturday's Big 'Cap—and is grousing? The guy placed the wager early, when Physician was a red-hot 40-1. The Book closed him at 60-1. "I just blew $200," moaned the citizen as he collected his $400 award. Some guys have real troubles, don't they?

... LESTER MARSHALL, 6143 Fidler Ave., Lakewood, made me feel that I don't keep up with all the news (please, no comments, Arnold) when he informed me that a "Dodger Hater Club" has existed since 1960 at Don's Dog House on E. Anaheim St. All members agree to protest all Dodger victories, good plays and long hits—and will cheer all teams playing against the Dodgers. (P.S. The clubbers all are sore because "Moneybags" O'Malley won't bring in the TV game-of-the-week.) Teevee ... teevee. Doesn't anyone want to go out to the old ball park any more?

... Santa Anita's daily handle and the bookies' business has dropped since the blacksmith war has resulted in non-stake horses running without shoes at the Arcadia plant. The players claim shoeless horses play hades with form. Which just goes to prove the world is composed of many sick people. Who knows how a horse will run whether or not he has shoes—and if you give me an argument I'll point to Physician's astounding upset Saturday! (He had shoes—as did every other creature in the chase. So who ran to form then?)

... Jack Dempsey's annual Kentucky Derby junket, which starts April 29 and ends May 9—and takes you from L.A. to Las Vegas, Denver, Chicago, Louisville, Lexington and St. Louis via train—is ready for guests' action. Jack's number is HO. 9-1653—and the price $560 per fan.

... IS THERE TRUTH to the rumor printed by my L.A. colleague, Bud Furillo, that the busy House of Serfas in West L.A. burned to the ground Saturday because of behind-the-scenes shenanigans by managers and coaches of certain pro teams? I'm sure there isn't, but guys named Waterfield, Bayval and Rigney were wearing big smiles Sunday. Too, too many of their players exercised off-field at the Serfas place, y'know.

... Congrats to Long Beach State's Bob Handloser for advancing to the Golden Gloves finals Saturday night, even though he got bombed in the third heat. But, Bob, you gotta change your name. How can you be heavyweight champion with the handle of Handloser?

... Johnny Olszewski's three little Lions underwent tonsilectomy at Osteopathic Hospital Monday. Both mother and big Lion were reported doing fine.

... If anyone is looking for a split end who is eager, he might contact Bob Heberer at L.B. State. Unsullied by the recent pro drafts, Bob now is personally contacting each and every NFL and AFL club to let them know he's a potential free agent Cinderella.

... Add another rose to the big bouquet already gathered by the Lakers' fine coach, Fred Schaus. Fred's move in switching Laker pre-playoff practices to Elgin Baylor's Army base was a masterpiece. (But what if the Army had planted Elgin in Leopoldville—and would that have made Elgin a Belgian?)

... Derby Horses Go in Swaps Purse

By MAC MCGUIRE

Ronnie's Ace, second in last year's Santa Anita Derby, and Dr. Miller, fourth in the 1961 Kentucky Derby, run for the high claiming price of $30,000 today in the featured Swaps Purse at 1-1/16 miles at Santa Anita.

The event for horses in for claim, ranging from $20,000 to $30,000, drew such entries as Jaywalking, Cowlight, Harpie, Field Service, Skimble, Skamble, Norabel and Interlocutor.

Cadiz won Tuesday's Fitzgerald Handicap with a devastating stretch run to beat Windy Sands by 3 1/2 lengths, with Vendetta and Call The Witness dead-heating for third.

There's an unmistakable quality about Hill and Hill... and about the people who enjoy it. Discriminating people have long selected Hill and Hill as their favorite bourbon. Its rich Kentucky flavor is patiently mellowed over the years. Also comes in a satisfying light blend.

Absorbs facial moisture for closer, quicker shaves

Facial perspiration can slow your shaver down—leave you with a half-close shave. New Remington Shaving Powder Stick helps absorb perspiration and facial oils. It's softer, finer—easier to apply. Lets your shaver stroke dry, smooth and even—for close, comfortable shaving all year long.

Powder won't crumble or crack. Never spills or harms your shaver's precision parts. Only $1.00 at drug and shaver counters at Remington Service Stations.

and about the people who enjoy it

Discriminating people have long selected Hill and Hill as their favorite bourbon. Its rich Kentucky flavor is patiently mellowed over the years. Also comes in a satisfying light blend.

HILL and HILL

The bourbon with the flavor of America

The Vikes' two prep sensations—Tim Russell and Bill Pace—were easy victors in their specialties. Russell won the 100 in 9.9 and Pace captured the shotput with a 52-3 3/4 toss.
